Realism In European Literature:

Realism in European Literature Nicholas Boyle, Martin Swales, 1986-03-31 The essays in this collection which was originally published in 1986 address fundamental issues of literary realism that have long been given prominence by J P Stern the distinguished writer on German literature and author of the seminal study On Realism In the prevailing theoretical climate problems associated with literary realism assumed great urgency Such problems are the notion of literary truth to life the survival of the concept of realism in the light of modern hermeneutical theory the perspective adopted by the contemporaries of Barthes and inheritors of Nietzsche on the canonical prose writers of the nineteenth century and the future for an exegetical tradition represented in the work of Erich Auerbach On Realism J. P. Stern, 2021-12-16 First published in 1973 On Realism is a comprehensive introduction to the complex problem of literary realism Written from both a critical and philosophical perspective the book brings together the concrete study of literary cases and the conceptual analysis of the terms used in describing them It uses examples drawn from a wide range of European literature and engages in philosophical discussion to argue for a richer and freer sense of the concept than was more commonly in favour at the time of writing The book describes the literary forms of realism as an art of the middle distance and sets out its character and value against alternatives and distortions symbolism naturalism socialist realism faits divers and the literature of language consciousness On Realism will appeal to those with an interest in literary history the history of literary theory and literature and philosophy

The Age of Realism Frederick William John Hemmings, Giovanni Carsaniga, 1978 Realism Damian Grant, 2019-01-30 First published in 1970 this book provides an introduction to literary realism After considering what realism is and its philosophical roots it goes on to examine the emergence of the idea of realism in nineteenth century France and its gradual spread across the wider republic of letters This work will be of interest to those studying nineteenth century European literature

Realism in European Literature György Lukács, European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers, 2001-01-01 An anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of European literature Each chapter in this book is devoted to one particular school of movement from within a body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism through to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s

Studies in European Realism György Lukács, 1964 European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers, 2006-06-15 European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism is an anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of recent European literature Each chapter is devoted to one particular school of movement from within the broad body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism though to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s and the more recent initiative of postmodernism These texts are approached both on their own terms as individual formulations of the goals and procedures literary aesthetic and political that characterized the work of these writers and as key documents of the literary school or movement to which these writers belonged Landscapes of Realism Dirk Göttsche, Rosa Mucignat, Robert Weninger, 2021-04-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary exploration of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this first volume tackles in its five core essays and twenty five case studies such questions as why realism emerged when it did why and how it developed such a transformative dynamic across languages to what extent realist poetics remain central to art and popular culture after 1900 and how generally to reassess realism from a twenty first century comparative perspective

An Introduction to Modern European Literature Martin Travers, 1997-11-24 Each chapter concludes with a detailed chronology of the major literary texts of each movement covering fiction drama and poetry Cover Realism Pam Morris, 2004-06-02 A clear reader friendly guide to debates around realism this guide is vital reading for students of literature in particular those working on the realist novel The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant garde and existentialist movement to Barthes Blanchot Breton and continental thought pertinent today Magical

Realism Lois Parkinson Zamora, Wendy B. Faris, 1995 On magical realism in literature Realism Lilian R. Furst, 1992 Realism is one of the most common terms in the critical vocabulary yet has been described as a monster with many heads desperately in need of disentangling Professor Furst's collection is ideally placed to help the student understand its complexities and the range of responses it has evoked She begins with the reflections of such classic realist writers as Balzac and Henry James which provide a context for a series of major twentieth century readings After this overture the curtain is raised with contributions from humanist Marxist structuralist rhetorical reader oriented psychoanalytic deconstructionist and feminist criticism including excerpts from an international range of critics such as George Lukacs Roland Barthes David Lodge and J Hillis Miller A substantial Introduction Headnotes and a Glossary of Terms provide a wider context for the essays and explain terms that may be unfamiliar to the student A selective annotated Bibliography provides a guide to further reading Back cover
