Sha, 2021-03-02 How did the idea of the imagination impact Romantic literature and science 2018 Winner Jean Pierre Barricelli Book Prize The International Conference on Romanticism Richard C Sha argues that scientific understandings of the imagination indelibly shaped literary Romanticism Challenging the idea that the imagination found a home only on the side of the literary as a mental vehicle for transcending the worldly materials of the sciences Sha shows how imagination helped to operationalize both scientific and literary discovery Essentially the imagination forced writers to consider the difference between what was possible and impossible

while thinking about how that difference could be known Sha examines how the imagination functioned within physics and chemistry in Percy Bysshe Shelley's Prometheus Unbound neurology in Blake's Vala or The Four Zoas physiology in Coleridge's Biographia Literaria and obstetrics and embryology in Mary Shelley's Frankenstein He also demonstrates how the imagination was called upon to do aesthetic and scientific work using primary examples taken from the work of scientists and philosophers Davy Dalton Faraday Priestley Kant Mary Somerville Oersted Marcet Smellie Swedenborg Blumenbach Buffon Erasmus Darwin and Von Baer among others Sha concludes that both fields benefited from thinking about how imagination could cooperate with reason but that this partnership was impossible unless imagination's penchant for fantasy could be contained Reality, 1928

Liturgy as Revelation Philip Caldwell, 2014-12-01 A critical issue in modern Catholic theology has been the relationship between the doctrine of revelation and the church's liturgical and sacramental practice This volume argues that although in the twentieth century Catholic theology increasingly recognized the centrality of Christology particularly the person of Christ as the locus of revelation and drew out the crucial implications of Christ as the revelation of God it was slow to connect this revelatory dynamic with the encounter that occurs within the sacramental space of the liturgy most notably the Eucharist Taking the decline of the neoscholastic enterprise in Catholic theology and the challenges posed by modernism as his point of departure Philip Caldwell traces the evolution of the Catholic theology of revelation in the twentieth century and the vital role played by the liturgical and sacramental renewal movements in reimagining this pivotal theological category Examining the specific contributions of Ren Latourelle Avery Dulles Salvatore Marsilli and Gustave Martelet against a background of pre conciliar ressourcement theology this volume provides a comprehensive account of why a Trinitarian and Christological construal of liturgy and sacraments as revelation is key to the vision that informed Vatican II and offers constructive theological and ecclesial possibilities for the future The Arts, 1921
