Really Existing Nationalisms A Post Communist View From Marx And Engels:

Really Existing Nationalisms Erica Benner, 2018-04-17 An impressive re examination of the theories of Marx and Engels on nationalism Really Existing Nationalisms challenges the conventional view that Marx and Engels lacked the theoretical resources needed to understand nationalism It argues that the two thinkers had a sophisticated insight into the subject and that the reasoning behind their policy towards specific national movements was often subtle and sensitive to the ethical issues at stake Erica Benner identifies arguments in Marx and Engels writings that can help us to think more clearly about national identity and conflict today

Really Existing Nationalisms Erica Benner, 1995 It is often alleged that Marx and Engels had no coherent understanding of nationalism and that contemporary events demonstrate the bankruptcy of their approach But this book shows that this is quite wrong and explains why Marxist perspectives ought to be included in the current debate about the origin and role of nationalism

Karl Marx Kevin B. Anderson, 2017-05-15 Marx's approach to analyzing society and especially his critique of capitalist society continues to influence the work of a large number of scholars world wide Unfortunately there are relatively few clear accounts of what this approach is and how to put it to use And despite the many attempts to use Marx's method to study a variety of subjects there are relatively few that can serve as useful models In the present volume the internationally renowned Marxist scholar Bertell Ollman and the social theorist Kevin B Anderson have brought together a sampling of the best writings of the past hundred years that illustrate and critique Marx's method as well as explain what it is and how to put it to work Anyone wishing to understand better Marx's dialectical method along of course with the theories created with its help or to revise this method or to criticize it or to use it in their own work will find this collection invaluable Jewish Materialism Eliyahu Stern, 2018-01-01 Cover Half Title Title Copyright Dedication Contents Preface Acknowledgments Note on Transliteration Introduction Materialisms 1 Tradition 2 Social Materialism 3 Scientific Materialism 4 Practical Materialism 5 The Materialization of Spirit Conclusion Jewish Body Politics Notes Bibliography Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W Y Z

Contemporary Nationalism David Brown, 2003-09-02 This book examines the problematic politics of contemporary nationalism and the worldwide resurgence of ethno nationalist conflict It analyses the core theories of nationalism building upon these theories and offering a clear analytical framework through which to approach the subject This outstanding volume features detailed case studies discussing nationalist contention in areas including Spain Singapore Ghana and Australia as well as looking at Northern Ireland Kosovo and Rwanda disputes The British Study of Politics in the Twentieth Century Jack Hayward, Brian Barry, Archie Brown, 2003-05-01 The distinctive strength of political science in Britain is revealed in this indispensable guide to modern British scholarship in the field As well as charting the development of the discipline the essays examine the innovative contributions to the study of nationalism totalitarianism and authoritarianism and the influential British approach to international relations The fourteen distinguished authors have provided a major contribution to our understanding of the contemporary state of political science Community, Solidarity and Belonging Andrew Mason, 2000-07-27 Despite the frequency with which the term community is used it is hard to find any comprehensive exploration of the nature and value of community This book tries to remedy this omission

whilst taking seriously the idea that community can be of different kinds and can exist at different levels and that these levels and kinds may come into conflict with one another It focuses on the question of what kind of community is valuable at the level of the state It then explores the limits that ideals of political community place upon cultural diversity within the state and the limits that in turn ideals of global community place upon the self determination of political communities This book will be of interest to students of political theory philosophy and international relations Encyclopaedia of Nationalism Athena Leoussi, 2018-02-06 Since the end of the internationalist Soviet experiment in 1989 nationalism is now recognized as a positive vital force in modern political cultural and social life if kept in check from excess As a result of the explosion of nationalism there has been a veritable resurgence of nationalism studies This proliferation calls for a survey of instruments which have been developed by scholars for the study of nationalism The Encyclopaedia of Nationalism brings together leading scholars in nationalism studies to survey this complex phenomenon With over one hundred entries the Encyclopaedia of Nationalism offers a complete and concise set of tools for the study of nationalism in a single volume The focus throughout is theoretical and for this reason particular nationalist movements and individual leaders are treated only as illustrative historical and contemporary cases in numerous entries The Encyclopaedia is organized in an alphabetical sequence of entries each of which includes a short bibliography for further reading The reader will find in depth discussions of the work of modern theoreticians of nationalism The defining figures of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries including Herder Rousseau Fichte Marx and Renan Conceptual entries are treated historically and sociologically Crucial influential ideas and phenomena that continually redefine themselves with changing historical circumstances among them anti-Semitism art and nationalism assimilation class and nation decolonization ethnic competition genocide language and nation multiculturalism religion and nation state and nation and xenophobia are treated in depth A special attraction of this volume is its essay long entries many of which have been written by the scholars who developed them The Encyclopaedia of Nationalism discusses in lucid terms from an interdisciplinary perspective the central issues debates concepts and theories available to students and scholars of nationalism As such it is the most comprehensive and authoritative guide to the subject in all its varied manifestations and implications It will be an essential tool for historians political scientists sociologists and scholars of the history of ideas
