Marcuse in the Twenty-First Century Robert Kirsch, Sarah Surak, 2018-12-07 This book engages the critical theory of political philosopher Herbert Marcuse to imagine spaces of resistance and liberation from the repressive forces of late capitalism Marcuse an influential counterculture voice in the 1960s highlighted the smooth democratic unfreedom of postwar capitalism a critique that is well adapted to the current context The compilation begins with a previously unpublished lecture delivered by Marcuse in 1966 addressing the inadequacy of philosophy in its current form arguing how it may be a force for liberation and social change This lecture provides a theoretical mandate for the volume s original contributions from international scholars engaging how topics such as higher education aesthetics and political organization can contribute to the project of building a critical rationality for a qualitatively better world offering an alternative to the bleak landscape of neoliberalism The essays in this volume as whole engage the current context with an urgency appropriate to the problems facing an encroaching authoritarianism in political society with an interdisciplinary lens that speaks to the complexity of the problems facing modern society The chapters originally published as a special issue in New Political Science

Laconic philosophical encyclopedia. LaPhiEnia (LPE) Oleg Starchen, 2022-05-15 I am not very well know English so I apologies for mistakes This encyclopedia is about the love of wisdom and it is laconic which is defined by its name This encyclopedia is such not in the academic sense but in the Hegel sense because the great philosopher Georg Hegel created the original work Encyclopedia of philosophical Sciences Therefore a LAconic PHIllosophical ENcyclopedIA or for short i e speaking laconically LaPhiEnia LPE is also OrPhiEnia Oleg Starchen 2018

Evil Spirits Gary Banham, Charlie Blake, 2000 Incorporating a diversity of approaches from a variety of disciplines this book provides a major reassessment of the question of nihilism in modernity and interrogates this through the growing interest in angels and demons in contemporary philosophy The collection examines the uncanny return of angelic and demonic principles in current cultural production and thinking and aims to show that the repression of thought about spiritual entities at the onset of modernity is linked to the appearance of a new form of evil that manifests itself through nihilism

Roberto Esposito Peter Langford, 2015-05-15 Roberto Esposito Law Community and the Political provides a critical legal introduction to this increasingly influential Italian theorist s work by focusing on Esposito s reconceptualisation of the relationship between law community and the political The analysis concentrates primarily on Esposito s Cat gories de l Impolitique Communitas Immunitas and B os which it is argued are animated by an abiding concern with the position of critique in relation to the tradition of modern and contemporary legal and political philosophy Esposito s fundamental rethinking of these notions breaks with the existing framework of political and legal philosophy through the critique of its underlying presuppositions And in the process Esposito rethinks the very form of critique As the first monograph length study of Esposito in English

Roberto Esposito Law Community and the Political will be of considerable interest to those working in the areas of contemporary legal and political thought and philosophy Kant, Adorno, and the Forms of History William S. Allen, 2025-02-06 Kant Adorno and the Forms of History sets the works of Theodor Adorno Immanuel Kant and Peter Weiss in dialogue revealing how an interrogation of the aesthetics of the whole and the conception of history in Western thought reveals new ways of thinking about history and historically To conceive of history as such it is necessary to conceive it as a whole but doing so carries implications about its development and direction Furthermore such an idea makes it difficult to consider its parts without subsuming them to the whole thereby making individuals merely instrumental to achieving the aims of history William S Allen brings the thought of Kant Adorno and Weiss to bear on these tensions tracing how Adorno's reconsideration of history through his readings of Kant's Critique of Judgement are distinct from formulations offered by other thinkers Marx Hegel Lyotard Allen establishes that Kant's Critique of Judgement is not only a sustained analysis of the development of forms whether aesthetic or organic but also a tacit interrogation of the form of the whole and the possibilities of thinking it Kant Adorno and the Forms of History argues that Adorno has taken up this interrogation more than any other thinker and through his aesthetics has introduced an alternative thought which has been modified and extended in the work of Peter Weiss in his last novel The Aesthetics of Resistance Within this thought lies the possibility of thinking history without the whole without unity or purpose which is a possibility that may offer new insights in the face of imminent environmental economic and political collapse The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 Nietzsche's Metaphilosophy Paul S. Loeb, Matthew Meyer, 2019-11-07 Renowned scholars explore and discuss Nietzsche's desire to challenge the very conception of philosophy and his methods of doing so Science and the Shaping of Modernity Charles Wolfe, Anik Waldow, 2024-12-23 This book collects a variety of short essays on Stephen Gaukroger's thought by leading scholars both senior and junior Stephen Gaukroger 1950-2023 was one of the preeminent specialists of early modern science and philosophy particularly their interrelations including under the heading natural philosophy on the international scene since the 1980s starting with his prominent Cartesian scholarship and biography and moving towards the formidable 4 volume series on science and the shaping of modernity from Emergence of a Scientific Culture to Civilization and the Culture of Science dealing not just with early modernity but with the Enlightenment German Romanticism and 20th century society This volume covers the thought of this highly recognized scholar and engages with his works covering early modern philosophy enlightenment and contemporary periods making it a must read for any philosopher and historian of science Initiation and Control of Gait from First Principles: A Mathematically Animated Model of the Foot Craig Nevin, 2010-05-21 This thesis examines the anatomical locations of the dynamic pressures that create the first five footprints when a standing person starts to walk It is hypothesized that the primary activity starts with the dorsiflexion or lifting of the great toe Consequently the metatarsophalangeal region of the forefoot was studied from three directions Viewed side on the great toe free body is found from a detailed post hoc analysis of previous kinematic data obtained from cadavers to operate as a cam. The cam model also follows closely from Aristotle's ancient description of the hinged instrument of animate motion. Viewed in coronal cross section, the first metatarsal torsion strength was estimated in 13 humans, 1 gorilla, 3 chimpanzees, 1 orangutan, and 1 baboon set of dry bone specimens of the hands and feet. The first metatarsal bone alone contributes 43% of the total strength of all the metatarsal bones. A result unique amongst the hominids and apes studied. Viewed in horizontal plan, the dynamic components and principle axes of the footprints of 54 barefoot humans (32 male, 22 female, age 32.11 years) were studied whilst standing on a 0.5m pressure plate and then immediately when walking over a 2m plate. 4 sensors per cm² sampled at 100hz. Two footprints were obtained during the initial stance posture and the first three footprints of the initial walk. Three new principles of animate motion were deduced from the divergent results obtained from complete and dissected cadavers. The metatarsal cam from the sagittal side view, the ground reaction torque from the frontal coronal view, and the amputation artifact. The philosophy of experimenting on inanimate cadavers rather than living subjects was intensively researched. Instead of assuming that gait is a uniform or regular motion as is usual, the foot was analyzed rather as if it was a beam attached to the ground. Engineering equations were used to determine the flexural properties of the foot every 0.01 seconds, including the principle axes, radius of gyration, and the local shear stresses on the sensors spaced 5.7mm apart. A sequence of these impressions creates a mathematically animated model of the footprint. The local force under the foot was normalized against both the total force and contact duration. The forces under the foot were each divided between 10 anatomical regions using individual masks for each foot strike. Producing a 54 subject database from which the normal behavior of the foot could be quantified. The group showed a surprisingly low right foot step-off dominance of only 54%. The combination of the radius of gyration and impulse in particular produces a succinct but powerful summary of the footprint during dynamic activity. The initial angle and magnitudes of the loads that are applied and removed demonstrates that the body first rocks onto the heels after the instruction to walk is given. The feet simultaneously invert and their arches rise off the ground as anticipated. The principle axes were then animated in a mathematical four-dimensional model. The horizontal radius of gyration is on average 5 cm during heel strike but increases to 20 cm as the forefoot comes into contact with the ground, finally rising to 25 cm at toe-off. Significantly, the applied load during the forefoot loading phase is more widely distributed than the load being removed. A new and unanticipated result that is believed to be a special characteristic of the animate foot. The standard deviation of the force under the great toe is the first mechanical parameter to converge in the 54 subjects, conclusively verifying the hypothesis that the great toe both initiates and controls gait.

Comparative Civilizations Review, 2001 Mind, 1988. A journal of philosophy covering epistemology, metaphysics, philosophy of language, philosophy of logic, and philosophy of mind. Revue roumaine de philosophie, 2007 New Directions in the Ethics of Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia. Michael Cholbi, Jukka Varelius, 2023-03-03. This book provides novel perspectives on ethical justifiability of assisted dying in the revised edition of New Directions in the Ethics of Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia Going significantly beyond traditional debates about the value of human life the ethical significance of individual autonomy the compatibility of assisted dying with the ethical obligations of medical professionals and questions surrounding intention and causation this book promises to shift the terrain of the ethical debates about assisted dying The novel themes discussed in the revised edition include the role of markets disability gender artificial intelligence medical futility race and transhumanism Ideal for advanced courses in bioethics and healthcare ethics the book illustrates how social and technological developments will shape debates about assisted dying in the years to come Literary Studies and Human Flourishing James F.

English, Heather Love, 2023 The Humanities and Human Flourishing series publishes edited volumes that explore the role of human flourishing in the central disciplines of the humanities and whether and how the humanities can increase human happiness The contributors to this volume of essays investigate the question what do literary scholars contribute to social scientific research on human happiness and flourishing Of all humanities disciplines none is more resistant to the program of positive psychology or the prevailing discourse of human flourishing than literary studies The approach taken in this volume of essays is neither to gloss over that antagonism nor to launch a series of blasts against positive psychology and the happiness industry Rather the contributors reflect on how their literary research work to which they are personally committed might become part of an interdisciplinary conversation about human flourishing The contributors areas of research are wide ranging covering literary aesthetics book history digital humanities and reader reception as well as the important inter disciplines of gender and sexuality studies disability studies and black studies fields in which issues of stigma and exclusion are paramount and which have critiqued the discourse of human flourishing for its failure to grapple with structural inequality and human difference Literary scholars are drawn more readily to the problematic than to the decidable but by dwelling on the trouble spots in a field of inquiry still largely confined to the sciences Literary Studies and Human Flourishing provides the groundwork for new and more productive forms of interdisciplinary collaboration and exchange

The Barbarian Principle Jason M. Wirth, Patrick Burke, 2013-09-04 Toward the end of his life Maurice Merleau Ponty made a striking retrieval of F W J Schelling s philosophy of nature The Barbarian Principle explores the relationship between these two thinkers on this topic opening up a dialogue with contemporary philosophical and ecological significance that will be of special interest to philosophers working in phenomenology and German idealism American Book Publishing

Heidegger's Hidden Sources Reinhard May, 2005-08-02 Heidegger s Hidden Sources documents for the first time Heidegger s remarkable debt to East Asian philosophy In this groundbreaking study Reinhard May shows conclusively that Martin Heidegger borrowed some of the major ideas of his philosophy on occasion almost word for word from German translations of Chinese Daoist and Zen Buddhist classics The discovery of this astonishing appropriation of non Western sources will have important consequences for future interpretations of Heidegger s work Moreover it shows Heidegger as a pioneer of comparative philosophy and transcultural thinking Merleau-Ponty's Reading of Husserl Ted

Toadvine, Lester Embree, 2013-03-09 Merleau Ponty s Reading of Husserl explores the relationship between two of the greatest thinkers of the twentieth century Edmund Husserl the father of modern phenomenology and Maurice Merleau Ponty considered by many to be his greatest philosophical heir While Merleau Ponty s influence on the dissemination and reception of Husserl s thought is indisputable unresolved questions remain concerning the philosophical projects of these two thinkers Does phenomenology first reach its true potential in Merleau Ponty s hands guided by his appreciation of the tacit goals underlying Husserl s philosophical project Or is Merleau Ponty s phenomenology a creative but ultimately misdirected appropriation of Husserl s work In this volume the first devoted to a comparison of the work of these two philosophers ten leading scholars draw on the latest research and newly available manuscripts to offer novel insights into Merleau Ponty s reading of Husserl with implications for our understanding of phenomenology s significance its method and the future of philosophy

Reanimation In Philosophy: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Reanimation In Philosophy : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
