

Postmodernism: The Loss of Truth

- Truth, if such a thing exists, is the property of culture. There is no absolute truth. All truth is relative. It is created by societies. There is no ultimate moral authority or moral absolute.

Reason Truth And Self Getting To Know The Truth About Postmodernism:

Reasons for Faith (Foreword by Lee Strobel) Norman L. Geisler, Chad V. Meister, 2007-10-26 Many Christians want to witness for their faith but they are afraid they will not be able to answer questions that others may ask of them First Peter 3 15 reminds believers to always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you Norman Geisler and Chad Meister realize the fear of facing questions about the Christian faith Their book Reasons for Faith gives believers grounded biblical apologetics to help them defend their faith By covering the importance of apologetics and then applying apologetics to popular culture and theological issues these authors give all Christians the tools they need to stand firm in their faith and to be able to share that faith in today's society On Transhumanism Stefan Lorenz Sorgner, 2020-12-15 Transhumanism is widely misunderstood in part because the media have exaggerated current technologies and branded the movement as dangerous leading many to believe that hybrid humans may soon walk among us and that immortality achieved by means of mind uploading is imminent In this essential and clarifying volume Stefan Lorenz Sorgner debunks widespread myths about transhumanism and tackles the most pressing ethical issues in the debate over technologically assisted human enhancement On Transhumanism is a vital primer on the subject written by a world renowned expert In this book Sorgner presents an overview of the movement's history capably summarizing the twelve pillars of transhumanist discourse and explaining the great diversity of transhumanist responses to each individual topic He highlights the urgent ethical challenges related to the latest technological developments inventions and innovations and compares the unique cultural standing of transhumanism to other cultural movements placing it within the broader context of the Enlightenment modernity postmodernity and the philosophical writings of Nietzsche Engagingly written and translated and featuring an introduction for North American readers this comprehensive overview of the cultural and philosophical movement of transhumanism will be required reading for students of posthumanist philosophy and for general audiences interested in learning about the transhumanist movement Faith Has Its Reasons Kenneth Boa, Robert M. Bowman Jr., 2012-01-05 A most accessible but thoroughly practical primer on apologetics Reasons for Our Hope H. Wayne House, Dennis W. Jowers, 2011-10 A sophisticated yet accessible introductory guide to an articulate and well informed defense of the Christian faith The Journal of Philosophy, 1996 Sacramental Presence after Heidegger Conor Sweeney, 2015-01-19 Theology after Heidegger must take into account history and language as constitutive elements in the pursuit of meaning Quite often this prompts a hurried flight from metaphysics to an embrace of an absence at the center of Christian narrativity In this book Conor Sweeney explores the postmodern critique of presence in the context of sacramental theology engaging the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and Lieven Boeve Chauvet is an influential postmodern theologian whose critique of the perceived onto theological constitution of presence in traditional sacramental theology has made big waves while Boeve is part of a more recent generation of theologians who even more wholeheartedly embrace postmodern consequences for theology Sweeney considers the extent to which postmodernism a la Heidegger upsets the hermeneutics of sacramentality asking whether this requires us to renounce the search for a presence that by definition transcends us Against both the fetishization of presence and absence Sweeney argues that metaphysics has a properly sacramental basis and that it is only through this reality that the dialectic of presence and absence can be transcended The case is made for the full but restless signification of the mother's smile as the paradigm for genuine sacramental presence

Postmodern Philosophy and Christian Thought Merold Westphal, 1999-11-22 Are postmodern philosophy and Christian thought so diametrically opposed that never the twain shall meet Or are various postmodern philosophies in spite of their secular provenance open to religious appropriation These thirteen lively original essays awaken secular postmodernisms and various modes of Christian thinking from their ideological complacency An open space for passionate dialogue emerges from conversations that powerfully engage both intellectual and religious points of view

Understanding Self and Others in the Postmodern World Richard E. Bailey Ph. D., 2013-01-22 Understanding Self and Others in the Postmodern World is unlike most books directed at giving people insight into themselves in that it is addressed to those who want to think about their lives relationships with others and how Western culture has arrived at the Postmodern World This book examines seven different worldviews that have become dominant for periods of time in the history of Western culture The author explains that although all worldviews share the same structure and characteristics they vary markedly in their contents Further a worldview molds those entering it after its own image Those readers 1 who identify their own assumptions about the nature of reality what it means to be a human being and the truth will gain insight into themselves And identifying the assumptions held by others on these matters will give the reader insight into them The problem in the Postmodern World is that we live and work with people who live in these different worlds That situation has invited disagreement and conflict which unresolved has led to the chaos that is characteristic of our time The solution before the nations of the West is that each citizen must grant to all others the same rights to life liberty and the pursuit of happiness he or she claims for him or herself

The Shape of Practical Theology Ray S. Anderson, 2025-08-14 Too often in the life of the church theological reflection and the practical matters of leading and serving have been considered independently The result has been the impoverishment of both Christian faith and Christian practice In this groundbreaking book Ray Anderson reflects theologically and practically on preaching worship ethics social justice therapy family homosexuality burnout in ministry reconciliation in relationships and theological education itself The result is The Shape of Practical Theology a new and renewing foundation for engaging in Christian ministry Anderson lays out his threefold goal as follows to define more clearly the shape of practical theology as truly a theological enterprise rather than mere mastery of skills and methods to demonstrate the praxis of practical theology as critical engagement with the interface between the word of God as revealed through Scripture and the work of God taking place in and through the church in the world to deal with practical pastoral theology from the perspective of those who are on the field of play of life and ministry where preaching counseling and teaching does affect for many persons the outcome of the game Illuminated by stimulating discussion and helpful case studies The Shape of Practical Theology is aimed at seminary students at Christian educators and at working pastors and counselors Anderson's work fascinating and fruitful brings together the Word of God with the Spirit of God in the ever changing context of real life ministry

End Of Knowing Fred Newman, Lois Holzman, 2006-04-10 First published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

Missional Church Daniel L. Guder, 1998-02-09 What would a theology of the Church look like that took seriously the fact that North America is now itself a mission field This question lies at the foundation of this volume written by an ecumenical team of six noted missiologists Lois Barrett Inagrace T Dietterich Darrell L Guder George R Hunsberger Alan J Roxburgh and Craig Van Gelder The result of a three year research project undertaken by The Gospel and Our Culture Network this book issues a firm challenge for the church to recover its missional call right here in North America while also offering the tools to help it do so The authors examine North America's secular culture and the church's loss of dominance in today's society They then present a biblically based theology that takes seriously the church's missional vocation and draw out the consequences of this theology for the structure and institutions of the church

Self-in-Relationship Psychotherapy in Action Augustine Meier, Micheline Boivin, 2024-06-14 This book presents a comprehensive guide to applying Meier and Boivin's Self in Relationship Psychotherapy model to clinical work with individuals couples families and children The central theme of the book is that the paradigm of affects cognitive processes and behaviors that informs current psychotherapy approaches needs to be broadened to include core self relational and physical intimacy needs as motivating factors in psychotherapy Drawing on multiple influences including relational psychoanalysis the authors illustrate how to work with core needs when providing therapy to children and adults They establish that core needs are universal and their realizations are essential for healthy living and argue that clients achieve the healthiest outcomes by finding a way to balance the self alongside their relations with others The concept of core self relational and physical intimacy needs is what binds all the chapters in this book and makes it unique among psychotherapy approaches With a clear transtheoretical approach and rich clinical vignettes this book is core reading for any psychotherapists psychoanalyst or practicing psychologists

Transformations of the Liminal Self Alaa Alghamdi, 2011-08-18 The concept of home has been changing for more than a century This change began with colonialism and the movement of people across the globe often within a set power dynamic

Since people now move with greater frequency the question of where home is and what home means is more relevant than ever before Meticulously researched Transformations of the Liminal Self addresses the formation of home and identity and the ways in which the latter depends on the former Using the postcolonial Muslim characters in the literary works of British authors Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Zadie Smith Monica Ali and Fadia Faqir author Alaa Alghamdi shows how home and identity are profoundly impacted by the power dynamics of the colonial relationship the individual immigrants experience and the subjects multicultural setting Drawing upon the theoretical work of Homi Bhabha Rosemary Marangoly George Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and Edward Said the conception of home and the formation of hybrid identities is examined and connected to larger cultural manifestations of MuslimWestern relationships More specifically Alghamdi explores how these characters define their home Bold and challenging Alghamdis work offers a rigorous and well articulated contribution to the ongoing academic conversation about identity and postcolonial literature
