With a Foreword by Jean-Paul Sartre* Ronald David Laing, 1964 Reason & Violence Ronald David Laing, David Graham Cooper, 1964 Terrorism J. Angelo Corlett, 2003-10-31 This book is the culmination of over 15 years of research on terrorism secession and related concepts such as the obligation to obey the law pacifism civil disobedience non violent direct action political violence revolution and assassination It is sincerely hoped that the content of this book is construed as an ethical and philosophical attempt to advance human understanding of some of life's most intractable problems namely terrorism and more generally political violence This book is proffered as a propaedeutic to further study of these issues and is not to be interpreted as the author's final word on them For the pursuit of truth and avoidance of error is never wholly complete but at best a life long process of continual reflection analysis and argument And it will please the author of this book if it brings even a modicum of knowledge to the difficulties it investigates Some of the chapters of this book have been published or have otherwise experienced the critical assistance of various public academic forums and I am sincerely grateful to those who have shaped my thinking about terrorism and its related concepts Among those who have provided critical and helpful insights concerning various sections of the contents of this book are David Copp Richard Falk Joel Feinberg Richard W Miller and Thomas Pogge Reason & Violence Ronald David Laing, David Graham Cooper, 1971 Some discussion of homosexuality in the section on Sartre's Saint Genet Peter Thorslev Reason and Violence Ronald David Laing, D. A Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman, 2020-04-03 In A Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman proposes aesthetic education through film as a way to redress the political violence inflicted on difference that society constructs as its racialized gendered Semitic and sexualized other Drawing on Voltaire Diderot and Schiller Schoolman reconstructs the genealogical history of what he calls the reconciliation image a visual model of a democratic ideal of reconciliation he then theorizes through Whitman s prose and poetry and Adorno s aesthetic theory Analyzing The Help 2011 and Gentleman s Agreement 1947 Schoolman shows how film produces a more advanced image of reconciliation than those originally created by modernist artworks Each film depicts violence toward racial and ethnic difference while also displaying a reconciliation image that aesthetically educates the public about how the violence of constructing difference as otherness can be overcome Mounting a democratic enlightenment the reconciliation image in film illuminates a possible politics for challenging the rise of nationalism s violence toward differences in all their diversity Perspectives on Nonviolence V.K. Kool, 2012-12-06 Paddock has referred to societies as anti violent that inhibit the expression of aggression In his book Violence and Aggression KE Moyer has made a brief but interesting comparison of several violent and nonviolent cultures Whereas studies of violence have ranged from genetic cultural to Situation effects and have been pursued through empirical and nonempirical methods over the past several decades nonviolence did not become a favorite area of study among social scientists Although it is impossible to make a complete list of the various reasons for the lack of interest among social scientists on this subject it is generally believed that a lack of understanding of the concept and a failure to either develop or apply adequate methods are to blame Therefore we are not surprised that nonviolence has remained by and large a favorite topic among religious thinkers and leaders only A good example of how people have difficulty understanding the concept of nonviolence came to me when I delivered a lecture to a group of political science students several years ago I experienced similar problems when I spoke to the history and political science professors Subsequent dialogues with faculty members in other disciplines convinced me that our perspectives on nonviolence were not commonly clear to all of us or course most of us did agree on one thing that Is there Is a distinct difference separating Eastern from Western views of nonviolence The Portable Hannah Arendt Hannah Arendt, 2003-07-29 A collection of writings by a groundbreaking political thinker including excerpts from The Origins of Totalitarianism and Eichmann in Jerusalem She was a Jew born in Germany in the early twentieth century and she studied with the greatest German minds of her day Martin Heidegger and Karl Jaspers among them After the rise of the Nazis she emigrated to America where she proceeded to write some of the most searching hard hitting reflections on the agonizing issues of the time totalitarianism in both Nazi and Stalinist garb Zionism and the legacy of the Holocaust federally mandated school desegregation and civil rights in the United States and the nature of evil The Portable Hannah Arendt offers substantial excerpts from the three works that ensured her international and enduring stature The Origins of Totalitarianism The Human Condition and Eichmann in Jerusalem Additionally this volume includes several other provocative essays as well as her correspondence with other influential figures The Novels and Other Works of Lyof N. Tolstoi graf Leo Tolstoy, 1911 The kingdom of God is within you graf Leo Tolstoy, 1917 Reason for Violence, etc Dianne Joan DOUBTFIRE, 1964 The kingdom of God is within you. What is art? graf Leo Tolstoy, 1922 Ireland's terrorist dilemma Yonah Alexander, Alan O'day, 2024-08-19 The Art of the Real Roger Rothman, Ian Verstegen, 2015-09-18 Art of the Real is devoted to registering the materialist turn of contemporary theory in visual studies For many years visual studies was dominated by post structuralist theory and its attendant nominalism More recently however the materialism of Slavoj i ek the realism of Gilles Deleuze especially as imputed by Manuel de Landa and Alain Badiou has disrupted this status quo Today we are more likely to take for granted the relevance of biology and the natural sciences while the return of Marx has been more serious than countenanced by Derrida or Foucault This book considers visual studies and the questions that have led to the new materialism its ontology and its relation to contemporary politics While a good deal of work has promoted a materialist agenda at the same time that scholars in art history and visual studies have felt liberated by the call to attend to objects materials and materiality no publication has yet treated this move for its meta theoretical commitments This volume does this by addressing the conditions that have brought about the turn to materiality the ontological commitments that follow on from new materialist metaphysics and the political implications wrought by these commitments The Highway of Despair Robyn Marasco, 2015-03-24 Hegel s highway of despair introduced in his Phenomenology of Spirit is the tortured path traveled by natural consciousness on its way to freedom Despair the passionate residue of Hegelian critique also indicates fugitive opportunities for freedom and preserves the principle of hope against all hope Analyzing the works of an eclectic cast of thinkers Robyn Marasco considers the dynamism of despair as a critical passion reckoning with the forms of historical life forged along Hegel s highway The Highway of Despair follows Theodor Adorno Georges Bataille and Frantz Fanon as they each read resist and reconfigure a strand of thought in Hegel s Phenomenology of Spirit Confronting the twentieth century collapse of a certain revolutionary dialectic these thinkers struggle to revalue critical philosophy and recast Left Hegelianism within the contexts of genocidal racism world war and colonial domination Each thinker also re centers the role of passion in critique Arguing against more recent trends in critical theory that promise an escape from despair Marasco shows how passion frustrates the resolutions of reason and faith Embracing the extremism of what Marx in the spirit of Hegel called the ruthless critique of everything existing she affirms the contemporary purchase of radical critical theory resulting in a passionate approach to political thought The Works of Orestes A. Brownson: Explanations and index Orestes Augustus Brownson, 1887
