Reason Violence:

Religion in Reason Tarek R. Dika, Martin Shuster, 2022-11-30 This book presents critical engagements with the work of Hent de Vries widely regarded as one of the most important living philosophers of religion Contributions by a distinguished group of scholars discuss the role played by religion in philosophy the emergence and possibilities of the category of religion and the relation between religion and violence secularism and sovereignty Together they provide a synoptic view of how de Vries's work has prompted a reconceptualization of how religion should be studied especially in relation to theology politics and new media The volume will be of particular interest to scholars of religious studies theology and philosophy A

Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman, 2020-04-03 In A Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman proposes aesthetic education through film as a way to redress the political violence inflicted on difference that society constructs as its racialized gendered Semitic and sexualized other Drawing on Voltaire Diderot and Schiller Schoolman reconstructs the genealogical history of what he calls the reconciliation image a visual model of a democratic ideal of reconciliation he then theorizes through Whitman's prose and poetry and Adorno's aesthetic theory Analyzing The Help 2011 and Gentleman's Agreement 1947 Schoolman shows how film produces a more advanced image of reconciliation than those originally created by modernist artworks Each film depicts violence toward racial and ethnic difference while also displaying a reconciliation image that aesthetically educates the public about how the violence of constructing difference as otherness can be overcome Mounting a democratic enlightenment the reconciliation image in film illuminates a possible politics for challenging the rise of nationalism's violence toward differences in all their diversity Freedom and Democracy in an Imperial Context

Robert Nichols, Jakeet Singh, 2014-03-26 Freedom and Democracy in an Imperial Context Dialogues with James Tully gathers leading thinkers from across the humanities and social sciences in a celebration of and critical engagement with the recent work of Canadian political philosopher James Tully Over the past thirty years James Tully has made key contributions to some of the most pressing questions of our time including interventions in the history of moral and political thought contemporary political philosophy democracy citizenship imperialism recognition and cultural diversity In 2008 he published Public Philosophy in a New Key a two volume work that promises to be one of the most influential and important statements of legal and political thought in recent history This work along with numerous other books and articles is foundational to a distinctive school of political thought influencing thinkers in fields as diverse as Anthropology History Indigenous Studies Law Philosophy and Political Science Critically engaging with James Tully's thought the essays in this volume take up what is his central and ever more pressing question how to enact democratic practices of freedom within and against historically sedimented and actually existing relationships of imperialism Faith, Reason and Common Sense Paul M. Roddick, 2010-05 Have you ever wondered where religion is concerned what you really believe In FAITH REASON COMMON SENSE the interdependence of religion and culture is examined with care and insight Readers with strong religious convictions may be surprised to discover that the history of religion every religion is both a chronicle of heresy and a reconfiguration of belief In his examination of the relationship between Faith and Reason the author rejects the familiar premise that a life guided by one must exclude the other Although he stresses the importance of examining the faith of our fathers he is respectful of those who in a world dominated by science find guidance and reassurance in their religion Far ranging and insightful drawing on a wealth of sources and opinions there is something for everyone in this challenging and though provoking study

The Politics of Piety Megan C. Armstrong, 2004 The Politics of Piety situates the Franciscan order at the heart of the religious and political conflicts of the late sixteenth century to show how a medieval charismatic religious tradition became an engine of political change The friars used their redoubtable skills as preachers intellectual training at the University of Paris and personal and professional connections with other Catholic reformers and patrons to successfully galvanize popular opposition to the spread of Protestantism throughout the sixteenth century By 1588 the friars used these same strategies on behalf of the Catholic League to prevent the succession of the Protestant heir presumptive Henry of Navarre to the French throne This book contributes to our understanding of religion as a formative political impulse throughout the sixteenth century by linking the long term political activism of the friars to the emergence of the French monarchy of the seventeenth century Megan C Armstrong is assistant professor of early modern Europe in the History Department of the University of Utah Embodying Forgiveness L. Gregory Jones,1995-08-31 In an engaging and interesting style that draws on a wide variety of literature as well as on Scripture and theological texts Jones shows how the practices of Christian forgiveness are richer and more comprehensive than often thought Bombs and Ballots Krista Eileen Wiegand,2010 Using Hezbollah in Lebanon Hamas in Palestine and the Mahdi Army in Iraq as primary case studies Krista Wiegand skilfully reveals why these groups have become involved in governance how mainstream governments accept or reject such groups and how some terrorist groups and militias govern certain territories that are not under mainstream government control The Palgrave Handbook of Philosophy and Public Policy David Boonin,2018-10-08 This book brings together a large and diverse collection of philosophical papers addressing a wide variety of public policy issues Topics covered range from long standing subjects of debate such as abortion punishment and freedom of expression to more recent controversies such as those over gene editing military drones and statues honoring Confederate soldiers Part I focuses on the criminal justice system including issues that arise before during and after criminal trials Part II covers matters of national defense and sovereignty including chapters on military ethics terrorism and immigration Part III which explores political participation manipulation and standing includes discussions of issues involving voting rights the use of nudges and claims of equal status Part IV covers a variety of issues involving freedom of speech and expression Part V deals with questions of justice and inequality Part VI considers topics involving bioethics and biotechnology Part VII is devoted to beginning of life issues such as cloning and surrogacy and end of life issues such as assisted suicide and organ procurement Part VIII navigates emerging environmental issues including treatments of the urban environment and extraterrestrial environments

The Highway of Despair Robyn Marasco,2015-03-24 Hegel s highway of despair introduced in his Phenomenology of Spirit is the tortured path traveled by natural consciousness on its way to freedom Despair the passionate residue of Hegelian critique also indicates fugitive opportunities for freedom and preserves the principle of hope against all hope Analyzing the works of an eclectic cast of thinkers Robyn Marasco considers the dynamism of despair as a critical passion reckoning with the forms of historical life forged along Hegel s highway The Highway of Despair follows Theodor Adorno Georges Bataille and Frantz Fanon as they each read resist and reconfigure a strand of thought in Hegel s Phenomenology of Spirit Confronting the twentieth century collapse of a certain revolutionary dialectic these thinkers struggle to revalue critical philosophy and recast Left Hegelianism within the contexts of genocidal racism world war and colonial domination Each thinker also re centers the role of passion in critique Arguing against more recent trends in critical theory that promise an escape from despair Marasco shows how passion frustrates the resolutions of reason and faith Embracing the extremism of what Marx in the spirit of Hegel called the ruthless critique of everything existing she affirms the contemporary purchase of radical critical theory resulting in a passionate approach to political thought Homicidal Ecologies Deborah J. Yashar, 2018-12-06 Why has violence spiked in Latin America's contemporary democracies? What explains its temporal and spatial variation? Analyzing the region's uneven homicide levels, this book maps out a theoretical agenda focusing on three intersecting factors: the changing geography of transnational illicit political economies; the varied capacity and complicity of state institutions tasked with providing law and order; and organizational competition to control illicit territorial enclaves. These three factors inform the emergence of homicidal ecologies: subnational regions most susceptible to violence in Latin America. After focusing on the contemporary causes of homicidal violence, the book analyzes the comparative historical origins of weak and complicit public security forces and the rare moments in which successful institutional reform takes place. Regional trends in Latin America are evaluated, followed by original case studies of Central America, which claims among the highest homicide rates in the world.

Crime and Racial Constructions Jeanette Covington, 2010-04-12 Crime and Racial Constructions: Cultural Misinformation about African Americans in Media and Academia focuses on how film images of dangerous hedonistic blacks have assumed greater significance since blacks protested racial injustice during the Civil Rights Movement and the Black Power Movement of the 1960s and 1970s. It does so by reviewing a number of films that have been released from the 1970s until the present in which black males are depicted as violent and threatening. It likewise considers how these same films represent black females as prostitutes, drug addicts, and irresponsible abusive mothers who spawn violence in their children. Because these on-screen images of a violent, apolitical, and immoral black underclass find their way into the criminological literature, the book also takes a look at how criminologists use these images to link crime to underclass culture. Both Hollywood and criminologists alike manage to ignore how black activism during the 1960s social movements actually sparked black opposition to the kind of black-on-black crime that is routinely depicted on screen. By taking a critical look at these negative images, Crime and Racial Constructions seeks to correct some of the distortions that arise from the undue academic and cinematic focus on black criminals at the expense of racially conscious blacks.

City of Suspects Pablo Piccato, 2001-09-26 An analysis of the complex moral interpretations of crime was given by Mexico's urban poor and of the evolving institutional responses to crime and punishment in modern Mexico.
