The SPEED of Trust Stephen M.R. Covey, Stephen R. Covey, Rebecca R. Merrill, 2008-02-05 Part of NWTC's Talent Development collection      The Essence of Christianity Ludwig Feuerbach, 2014-10-31 Example in this ebook 1

The Essential Nature of Man Religion has its basis in the essential difference between man and the brute the brutes have no religion It is true that the old uncritical writers on natural history attributed to the elephant among other laudable qualities the virtue of religiousness but the religion of elephants belongs to the realm of fable Cuvier one of the greatest authorities on the animal kingdom assigns on the strength of his personal observations no higher grade of intelligence to the elephant than to the dog But what is this essential difference between man and the brute The most simple general and also the most popular answer to this question is consciousness but consciousness in the strict sense for the consciousness implied in the feeling of self as an individual in discrimination by the senses in the perception and even judgment of outward things according to definite sensible signs cannot be denied to the brutes Consciousness in the strictest sense is present only in a being to whom his species his essential nature is an object of thought The brute is indeed conscious of himself as an individual and he has accordingly the feeling of self as the common centre of successive sensations but not as a species hence he is without that consciousness which in its nature as in its name is akin to science Where there is this higher consciousness there is a capability of science Science is the cognisance of species In practical life we have to do with individuals in science with species But only a being to whom his own species his own nature is an object of thought can make the essential nature of other things or beings an object of thought Hence the brute has only a simple man a twofold life in the brute the inner life is one with the outer man has both an inner and an outer life The inner life of man is the life which has relation to his species to his general as distinguished from his individual nature Man thinks that is he converses with himself The brute can exercise no function which has relation to its species without another individual external to itself but man can perform the functions of thought and speech which strictly imply such a relation apart from another individual Man is himself at once I and thou he can put himself in the place of another for this reason that to him his species his essential nature and not merely his individuality is an object of thought Religion being identical with the distinctive characteristic of man is then identical with self consciousness with the consciousness which man has of his nature But religion expressed generally is consciousness of the infinite thus it is and can be nothing else than the consciousness which man has of his own not finite and limited but infinite nature A really finite being has not even the faintest adumbration still less consciousness of an infinite being for the limit of the nature is also the limit of the consciousness The consciousness of the caterpillar whose life is confined to a particular species of plant does not extend itself beyond this narrow domain It does indeed discriminate between this plant and other plants but more it knows not A consciousness so limited but on account of that very limitation so infallible we do not call consciousness but instinct Consciousness in the strict or proper sense is identical with consciousness of the infinite a limited consciousness is no consciousness consciousness is essentially infinite in its nature 1 The consciousness of the 3 infinite is nothing else than the consciousness of the infinity of the consciousness or in the consciousness of the infinite the conscious subject has for his object the infinity of his own nature To be continue in this ebook

The Feeling Heart in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Katie Barclay, Bronwyn Reddan, 2019-12-02 The heart is an iconic symbol in the medieval and early modern European world In addition to being a physical organ it is a key conceptual device related to emotions cognition the self and identity and the body The heart is read as a metaphor for human desire and will and situated in opposition to or alongside reason and cognition In medieval and early modern Europe the feeling heart the heart as the site of emotion and emotional practices informed a broad range of art literature music heraldry medical texts and devotional and ritual practices This multidisciplinary collection brings together art historians literary scholars historians theologians and musicologists to highlight the range of meanings attached to the symbol of the heart the relationship between physical and metaphorical representations of the heart and the uses of the heart in the production of identities and communities in medieval and early modern Europe

Guilt Herant Katchadourian, 2011-07-06 This is the first study of guilt from a wide variety of perspectives psychology psychiatry psychoanalysis evolutionary psychology anthropology six major religions four key moral philosophers and the law Katchadourian explores the ways in which guilt functions within individual lives and intimate relationships looking at behaviors that typically induce guilt in both historical and modern contexts He examines how the capacity for moral judgments develops within individuals and through evolutionary processes He then turns to the socio cultural aspects of guilt and addresses society's attempts to come to terms with guilt as culpability through the legal process This personal work draws from and integrates material from extensive primary and secondary literature Through the extensive use of literary and personal accounts it provides an intimate picture of what it is like to experience this universal emotion Written in clear and engaging prose with a touch of humor Guilt should appeal to a wide audience

Awakening the Luminous Mind Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche, 2015-04-13 In Awakening the Luminous Mind meditation teacher Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche guides you to find refuge within instead of searching for support outside of yourself Using the heart instructions of Dawa Gyaltsen an 8th century Tibetan meditation master as a vehicle to guide contemplative practice Tenzin Wangyal Rinpoche opens your eyes to the gifts hidden in your ordinary experiences The meditations presented in the book and on the accompanying audio download provide a direct way to meet the challenges of life as we encounter them Fully incorporating these practices into daily life will help you open and transform your perceived limitations into unlimited possibilities They will help you dissolve self doubt and self judgment and discover the wisdom and light inherent within you in every moment Awakening the Luminous Mind completes a series of three books that present meditation instructions and practices to help readers discover the treasury of the natural mind

Unity of the Heart Peter N. Borys, Peter N. Borys, Jr., 2008-12 In Unity of the Heart Peter Borys Jr presents a multidimensional mystical anthropology and transformation that forms a spirituality of the heart A heart centered consciousness opens the way to living a new vision of mystical transformation and spiritual creativity Borys develops this new vision where we live from a transcendent consciousness in our everyday life of relationships intention creativity and work in the world The book supports our pathway to experience the meditative awareness relational self giving and intention of the heart based consciousness Within the heart we can seamlessly express our nonlocal and nondual mystic self as a community of being within the universe The awakening of a consciousness of the heart unites the sciences and the mystic way to form a spiritual scientific view of our multidimensional humanity and spiritual cosmology Within the new vision personal transformation to the true self in Divine unity becomes part of the evolution to an enlightened humanity

The Burdens of Survival David C. Stahl,2003-02-28 Although still virtually unknown in the West oka Sh hei 1909 1988 is one of Japan s most important and influential writers and social critics The Burdens of Survival is both a seminal English language study of this preeminent literary figure and one of the first scholarly works to thoroughly examine the war literature of a major Japanese veteran author Drawing on Robert Jay Lifton s work on traumatic experience and survivor psychology the book tells the illuminating story of oka s arduous journey that began with guilt ridden survival as a prisoner of war in the Philippines and culminated some twenty five years later in the fruitful completion of survivor mission David C Stahl examines oka s battlefield memoirs including the established war classic Fires on the Plain 1952 in terms of extreme experience survivor guilt bearing witness and the inability to mourn Writing enabled oka to give cathartic expression to his haunting battlefield experience and made it possible for him to move from blame shifting to empathy and mourning The lengthy exhaustively researched historical work The Battle for Leyte Island 1967 1969 faithfully details the personal and collective experience of battle depravation and loss and clarifies who and what was ultimately responsible for defeat Toward the end of this work and Return to Mindoro Island 1969 Ooka draws attention to the outstanding obligations owed by his countrymen to the war dead and suggests how they can be fulfilled by public confrontation learning the lessons of defeat and using them to rectify lingering social and political evils

Rousseau and Romanticism Irving Babbitt,2022-09-04 In Rousseau and Romanticism Irving Babbitt examines the profound influence of Jean Jacques Rousseau on the Romantic movement dissecting the philosophical underpinnings that shaped modern thought Babbitt s analysis spans various genres blending literary criticism with philosophical exploration to highlight the tension between individualism and social responsibility His prose is both incisive and elegantly crafted inviting readers to reflect on the implications of Rousseau s ideas in the context of Romanticism s emotional and aesthetic expressions The text serves as a literary critique firmly grounding it within the intellectual landscape of the early 20th century a period marked by a reevaluation of humanism and societal values Irving Babbitt a prominent critic and scholar was deeply influenced by his educational background at Harvard and his engagement with classical humanism and the New Humanism movement His experiences led him to grapple with the dichotomy between reason and emotion as captured in Rousseau s work ultimately provoking a critical examination of Romanticism s excesses and philosophical roots Babbitt s upbringing and scholarly pursuits imbue the text with a weighty authority underscoring his mastery of both literary criticism and ethical inquiry This book is an essential read for scholars of literature and philosophy as well as anyone interested in the historical interplay between Rousseau s ideas and the burgeoning Romantic movement Babbitt s compelling arguments illuminate the complexities of human emotion and rationality making it an indispensable resource for understanding the evolution of modern thought     Reason, Will and Emotion P. Crittenden,2012-09-28 This powerful exploration of an important topic in philosophy of mind from ancient to contemporary philosophy presents an original argument against the current direction of debate and examines a wide range of philosophers from both continental and analytic traditions     Autobiography of a Fugitive Negro Samuel R. Ward,2000-12-01     The Collected Works of Jean-Jacques Rousseau Jean-Jacques Rousseau,2023-11-17 The Collected Works of Jean Jacques Rousseau showcases the breadth and depth of the renowned philosopher s literary output ranging from political theory to autobiographical musings Written in a clear and engaging manner Rousseau s works delve into themes of human nature societal structures and the nature of freedom His writing style is profound yet accessible making this collection a must read for anyone interested in Enlightenment philosophy With influences from the likes of Montesquieu and Locke Rousseau s works are a cornerstone of Western philosophical thought     Tennyson and His Friends Hallam Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1911     The Religious Magazine; Or, Spirit of the Foreign Theological Journals and Reviews ,1829     The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal ,1892     Southern Literary Messenger ,1840     The Southern Literary Messenger ,1840     Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell,Robert S.
