Reassessing Arms Control:

Reassessing Arms Control David Carlton, Carlo Schaerf, 1985 Success and Failure in Arms Control Negotiations April Carter, 1989 Governments have been negotiating about disarmament or more limited forms of arms control for forty years Despite these negotiations weapons of increasing deadliness and sophistication continue to be developed Through the use of case studies of particular negotiations Partial and Comprehensive Test Ban SALT I and II INF and START and MBFR CFE the book explores both the reasons for success and the obstacles leading to failure and assesses the importance of different types of explanation Dr Carter not only analyses the reasons why negotiations fail she also examines the conditions under which they are likely to succeed The result is a balanced comprehensive treatment of the problems and prospects for arms control Scrutiny of arms export controls (2012) Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Business, Innovation and Skills Committee, 2012-07-13 The Committees on Arms Export Controls CAEC believe that the Government should apply significantly more cautious judgements on the export of arms to authoritarian regimes which might be used for internal repression The Committees have scrutinised in unprecedented detail the Government's latest 2010 Annual Report on Strategic Export Controls HC 1402 session 2011 12 ISBN 9780102973662 the Government's quarterly information on individual export licence approvals and refusals and the Government's policies and performance on arms export controls and on arms control generally The Committees conclude that the Government's review of its policies and practices on arms exports following the Arab Spring should not have been carried out merely as an internal review and should instead have been the subject of public consultation in accordance with the Government's stated policy of transparency on arms exports And whilst the Government's introduction of a new licence suspension mechanism is welcome this is not sufficient to ensure that arms exported are not used for internal repression overseas because in many cases the arms will have left the UK before suspension occurs The Government should extend its arms export policy review from countries in the Middle East and North Africa to authoritarian regimes and countries of human rights concern worldwide Annex 7 of the report gives selected arms export licence approvals by the Government to countries of human rights concern and the report also contains details of the extant UK Government approved arms export licences to Argentina Bahrain Egypt Libya Saudi Arabia Syria Tunisia and Yemen Air University Review, 1986-07 Reassessing the Rogue Tory Janice Cavell, Ryan M. Touhey, 2018-11-15 The years when John Diefenbaker's Progressive Conservatives were in office were among the most tumultuous in Canadian history Coming to power on a surge of optimistic nationalism in 1957 the Rogue Tory had stirred up more controversy than any previous prime minister by the time he was defeated in 1963 This was nowhere more apparent than in his handling of international affairs This book reassesses foreign policy in the Diefenbaker era to determine whether its failures can be mainly attributed to the prime minister's personality traits particularly his indecisiveness or to broader shifts in world affairs Written by leading scholars who mine new sources of archival research the chapters examine the full range of international issues that confronted Diefenbaker and his ministers and probe the factors that led to success or failure decision or indecision on specific issues Rather than dismissing Diefenbaker as a Rogue Tory on the world stage this fascinating reconsideration of the Diefenbaker years challenges readers to push beyond the conventional and reassess his record with fresh eyes

Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1988 China, a Reassessment of the Economy United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee,1975 Multilateral Constraints on the Use of Force: A Reassessment , The Dangers of New Weapon Systems Trevor Taylor,1983-09-29 From Polaris to Trident Graham Spinardi,1994-01-06 This book provides a complete history of the US Fleet Ballistic Missile programme from its inception in the 1950s and the development of Polaris to the deployment of Trident II in 1990 Writing in an accessible yet scholarly manner Graham Spinardi bases his historical documentation of FBM development on interviews with many of the key participants His study confronts a central issue is technology simply a tool used to achieve the goals of society or is it an autonomous force in shaping that society FBM accuracy evolved from the city busting retaliatory capability of Polaris to the silo busting first strike potential of Trident Is this a case of technology driving the arms race or simply the intended product of political decisions The book provides a comprehensive survey of the literature looking at the role of technology in the arms race and seeks to explain technological development using a sociology of technology approach

Air university review, 1982, 1982 Inventing Accuracy Donald MacKenzie, 1993-01-29 Mackenzie has achieved a masterful synthesis of engrossing narrative imaginative concepts historical perspective and social concern Donald MacKenzie follows one line of technology strategic ballistic missile guidance through a succession of weapons systems to reveal the workings of a world that is neither awesome nor unstoppable He uncovers the parameters the pressures and the politics that make up the complex social construction of an equally complex technology Reevaluating Eisenhower David Allan Mayers, 1988-01-15 These essays offer diverse opinions and provocative insights They are a welcome reflection of current scholarly assessments of Eisenhower Dulles foreign policies Journal of American History Probably the most balanced analysis of Eisenhower s handling of foreign and national security policy that has yet appeared this book deserves to be widely read Highly recommended Choice Rational Politics Steven J. Brams, 2014-05-10 Rational Politics Decisions Games and Strategy focuses on the unified presentation of politics as a rational human activity including the paradox of voting and proportional representation The publication first offers information on the study of rational politics political intrigue in the Bible and candidate strategies Topics include the factor of timing in presidential primaries rational positions in a multicandidate race primacy of issues and their spatial representation and politics in the story of Esther The text then elaborates on voting paradoxes and the problems of representation voting power and threats and deterrence Discussions focus on a sequential view of the Cuban missile crisis use of threat power in Poland power anomalies in the European Community Council of Ministers probability of the paradox of voting empirical examples of the paradox of voting and problems in achieving proportional representation The book is a valuable reference for researchers interested in rational politics Origins of Flexible Response J. Stromseth, 1988-06-18 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett

It is hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms. A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson. In the 1990s you may have hoped that things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam. Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause: Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism; Ned Sherrin in broadcasting; or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years. Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer; Cicely Saunders, creator of the hospice movement; and Chad Varah, founder of the Samaritans. With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal; policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery; or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006, we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past. Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades: Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson; the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham; John DeLorean's gull-wing car; or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson. Though as rounded and balanced accounts, Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story. Authoritative and accessible, the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors, many of them leading figures in their field. Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter; Michael Crick on George Best; Richard Davenport-Hines on Anita Roddick; Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbrunn; Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan; Simon Heffer on John Profumo; Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath; Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield; Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh; Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien; and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes. Many in this volume are naturally household names. But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines. What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind-the-scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman; children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen, while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who. Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts. Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion, only to do the same months later in another factory. Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal, Bywater remains the only non-combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery.
