A Rebel in Time Harry Harrison,1983 A classic time travel adventure about altering the outcome of the War Between the States On the fields where Civil War battles have yet to be fought a black sergeant takes on a mad colonel with a machine gun and 25 million in gold with the winner to determine the course of history Rebel in Time Harry Harrison,1983

The Persistence of Purgatory Richard K. Fenn,1995 Richard K Fenn focuses on the significance of time in modern society and why we take it so seriously He traces contemporary western attitudes toward time back to the doctrine and myth of Purgatory Fenn makes a provocative case that especially for Americans the sense of the scarcity of time is a sign of social character shaped by a purgatorial complex He demonstrates the impact of Purgatory on Protestant preachers such as Baxter and Channing but also argues that Locke s views of religion education and the nature of the state can only be understood in this context Seriousness about time has become evidence of the good faith of the citizen Novelists like Robbins Mailer Vonnegut and Brautigan portray a society that oppresses the individual through time constraints For Dickens America seemed a purgatorial wasteland a place where time is always of the essence Assimilation and Empire Saliha Belmessous,2013-03-21 Assimilation was an ideology central to European expansion and colonisation an ideology which legitimised colonisation for centuries Assimilation and Empire shows that the aspiration for assimilation was not only driven by materialistic reasons but was also motivated by ideas The engine of assimilation was found in the combination of two powerful ideas the European philosophical conception of human perfectibility and the idea of the modern state Europeans wanted to create in their empires political and cultural forms they valued and wanted to realise in their own societies but which did not yet exist Saliha Belmessous examines three imperial experiments seventeenth and eighteenth century New France nineteenth century British Australia and nineteenth and twentieth century French Algeria and reveals the complex inter relationship between policies of assimilation which were driven by a desire for perfection and universality and the greatest challenge to those policies discourses of race which were based upon perceptions of difference Neither colonised nor European peoples themselves were able to conform to the ideals given as the object of assimilation Yet the deep links between assimilation and empire remained because at no point since the sixteenth century has the utopian project of perfection articulated through the progressive theory of history been placed seriously in question The failure of assimilation pursued through empire for both colonised and coloniser reveals the futility of the historical pursuit of perfection A Digest of the United States Supreme Court Reports from the Organization of the Court to October, 1885 Henry Gold Danforth,1885 Mosby's Rangers James J.  the photo is a uniquely powerful device for ordering and understanding the world But when an image depicts complex ambiguous or controversial events terrorist attacks wars political assassinations its ability to influence perception can prove deeply unsettling Are we really seeing the world as it is or is the image a fabrication or projection How do a photo s content and form shape a viewer s impressions What do such images contribute to historical memory About to Die focuses on one emotionally charged category of news photograph depictions of individuals who are facing imminent death as a prism for addressing such vital questions Tracking events as wide ranging as the 1906 San Francisco Earthquake the Holocaust the Vietnam War and 9 11 Barbie Zelizer demonstrates that modes of journalistic depiction and the power of the image are immense cultural forces that are still far from understood Through a survey of a century of photojournalism including close analysis of over sixty photos About to Die provides a framework and vocabulary for understanding the news imagery that so profoundly shapes our view of the world      California. Court of Appeal (1st Appellate District). Records and Briefs California
