C E In the second part of this book Alexei Sivertsev addresses the specific public functions performed by Jewish aristocratic clans such as judicial religious administrative and legislative He also demonstrates the continuity that existed in this respect between the Second Commonwealth aristocratic clans and those of the rabbinic period Finally the third part of this study deals with the process leading to the integration of the local native aristocracies of the Roman Near East into the centralized administrative system created by the Emperors starting with Constantine the Great This process is analyzed specifically regarding the example of the Jewish ruling elite The main question in this section is the degree to which the local administrative apparatus of the newly created Byzantine bureaucracy developed out of the traditional and clan based public institutions which had existed locally throughout the Roman period Laws of the State of New York New York (State).,1887 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2010 Library Journal ,1994 Holistic Reading Assessment HB Staff,1998-03-12 Annual Report of the Treasurer Maine.
