Recent Development in the Technical Examination of Early Netherlandish Painting Molly Faries, Ron Spronk, 2003 Scientific Examination of Art, 2005-01-01 Examines the application of scientific methods to the study and conservation of art and cultural properties This work addresses scientific topics of broad interest cutting across the boundaries of traditional disciplines and attracting up to 250 leading researchers in the field Early Netherlandish Painting at the Crossroads Maryan W. Ainsworth, 2001 The nine papers collected in this publication which comprises the third and latest edition to the symposium volumes by the Metropolitan Museum of Art were first presented in conjunction with the Museum s exhibition of Early Netherlandish painting culled from its own holdings in 1998 The essays by an international roster of leading specialists together uncover the circumstances underlying the creation of works of art and shed new light on their meaning in the context of the growing interdisciplinary activity and burgeoning scholarship in the field The importance of archival research into the socio economic factors that existed in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries is emphasized especially the impact of art markets on the production of paintings as well as sculpture Much new material has surfaced as a result of advances in the technical investigation of works of art underscoring the premise that the clues to the meaning of a work are often found not only in its method of manufacture but also in the specific audience for which it was intended and in the function that it originally served for that audience Publisher description      Early Netherlandish Paintings Bernhard Ridderbos, Henk Th. van Veen, Anne van Buren, 2005 An illustrated scholarly analysis of the art and the cultural interpretations of the Flemish Primitives      Jan van Eyck within His Art Alfred Acres, 2023-06-26 A new assessment of the inventive and influential artist Jan van Eyck Jan van Eyck 1390 1441 was one of the most inventive and influential artists in the entire European tradition The realism of his paintings continues to astound observers more than six centuries on even though our world is saturated by high resolution images However viewers today are as like to be absorbed by Van Eyck's personality as his realism While he sometimes directly painted himself into his works he also suggested his presence through an array of inscriptions signatures and even a personal motto Incorporating a wealth of new research and recent discoveries within a fresh exploration of the paintings themselves this book reveals how profoundly Jan van Eyck transformed the very idea of what an artist could be      The Art of Copying Art Penelope Jackson, 2022-08-26 This book is a study of the history role and significance of copying art Copies have enjoyed a different status from authentic artworks and though often acknowledged very rarely have they been considered collectively as a genre in their own right This volume showcases a variety of examples from copies of famous artworks made and used as props in movies to those made innocently by student artists as part of their training Examining the motivations for making copies and reflecting on the reception of copies is central to this book Copies have historically filled voids in collections where some sadly languish and have become a curatorial burden In other cases having a copy assists in conservation projects and fills the place of a lost work Ultimately by interrogating a copy's role and intent we might ask ourselves if viewing a copy changes our experience and perception of an artwork      Northern Renaissance Art Susie Nash, 2008-11-27 The history of northern Renaissance art from the late 14th to the early 16th century drawing on a rich range of sources to show how northern European art dominated the visual culture of Europe in this formative period      La peinture ancienne et ses procédés Anne Dubois, 2006 Ces Actes du Colloque XV pour l'étude du dessin sous-jacent et de la technologie dans la peinture Bruges 11-13 septembre 2003 réunissent trente-six études traitant d'œuvres d'art flamand espagnol portugais italien et français Ces études sont suivies comme dans les Actes précédents d'une bibliographie de l'infrarouge Depuis de nombreuses années on sait que la peinture ancienne est constituée outre d'œuvres dites originales de copies de répliques et de pastiches produites dans des ateliers actifs qui faisaient appel à des collaborations Les bases sur lesquelles on avait fondé jadis les catalogues des maîtres sont ébranlées De nombreuses attributions doivent être revues Les auteurs du présent volume ont porté leur effort dans ce sens examinant d'un œil critique le statut des peintures et les indices qui permettent de reconnaître l'original de la copie Certains auteurs traitent de procédés de copies de l'usage de cartons modèles et papiers perforés mais également de couleurs d'encre d'enduits de technique picturale D'autres auteurs tentent de préciser le nombre de collaborateurs dans les ateliers D'autres encore s'intéressent à une méthode d'examen comme la radiographie pour l'exploiter afin de distinguer au mieux la main du maître de celle du copiste      Conservation of Easel

Paintings Joyce Hill Stoner, Rebecca Rushfield, 2013-02-15 Conservation of Easel Paintings is the first comprehensive text on the history philosophy and methods of treatment of easel paintings that combines both theory with practice With contributions from an international group of experts and interviews with important artists this volume provides an all encompassing guide to necessary background knowledge in technical art history artists materials scientific methods of examination and documentation with sections that present varying approaches and methods for treatment including consolidation lining cleaning retouching and varnishing The book concludes with a section featuring issues of preventive conservation storage shipping exhibition lighting safety issues and public outreach Conservation of Easel Paintings is a crucial resource in the training of conservation students and will provide generations of practicing paintings conservators and interested art historians curators directors collectors dealers artists and students of art and art history with invaluable information and guidance

Materials, Methods, and Masterpieces of Medieval Art Janetta Rebold Benton, 2009-08-27 A comprehensive and informed analysis explores the startlingly diverse and sophisticated fine arts in the Middle Ages Materials Methods and Masterpieces of Medieval Art provides a comprehensive and detailed analysis of the work done by artists in western Europe during the Middle Ages Art historian Janetta Rebold Benton uses examples such as the Book of Kells Bury Saint Edmunds Cross and the Bayeux Tapestry and the work of artists such as Jan van Eyck and Giotto to explore the various media available to medieval artists and the ways in which those media were used to create a stunning array of masterworks Although the visual arts of the Middle Ages were extremely colorful today much of that color has diminished or disappeared the pigments and threads faded the gold abraded the silver tarnished Materials Methods and Masterpieces of Medieval Art allows these works to sparkle once more

Making Copies in European Art 1400-1600, 2018-11-26 Making Copies in European Art 1400 1600 comprises sixteen essays that explore the form and function manner and meaning of copies after Renaissance works of art The authors construe copying as a method of exchange based in the theory and practice of imitation and they investigate the artistic techniques that enabled and facilitated the production of copies They also ask what patrons and collectors wanted from a copy which characteristics of an artwork were considered copyable and where and how copies were stored studied displayed and circulated Making Copies in European Art in addition to studying many unfamiliar pictures incorporates previously unpublished documentary materials

Curating Art Janet Marstine, Oscar Ho Hing Kay, 2021-12-30 Curating Art provides insight into some of the most socially and politically impactful curating of historical and contemporary art since the late 1990s It offers up a museological framework for understanding watershed developments of curating in art museums Representing the plurality of theory and practice around the expanded field of relational curating the book focuses on curating that prioritises the quality of relationships between people and objects between institutions and people and among people It has wide international breadth with particularly strong representation in East and Southeast Asia including four papers never before translated into English This Asian cluster illuminates the globalisation of the field and challenges dichotomies of East and West while acknowledging distinctions within specific but often transnational cultural spheres The compelling philosophical perspectives and case studies included within Curating Art will be of interest to students and researchers studying curating exhibition development and art museums The book will also inspire current and emerging curators to pose challenging but important questions about their own practice and the relationships that this work sustains

Analytical Archaeometry Howell Edwards, Peter Vandenabeele, 2016-01-13 Analytical Archaeometry describes this interesting and challenging field of research on the border between natural sciences chemistry spectroscopy biology geology and humanities archaeology art history conservation sciences It fills the gap between these two areas whilst focussing on the analytical aspects of this research field The first part of the book studies the main analytical techniques used in this research field The second part expands from the different types of materials usually encountered and the final part is organised around a series of typical research questions The book is not only focussed on archaeological materials but is also accessible to a broader lay audience Overall the book is clearly structured and gives insight into different approaches to the study of analytical providing extensive discussion on a wide range of techniques materials questions and applications Due to the advances in analytical instrumentation and applications in this field it is important to have all this information merged together Academics as well as professionals in archaeology art history museum labs and conservation science will find this an invaluable reference source ensuring the reader is provided with the latest progress in this research field

Anonymous Art at Auction Anne-Sophie V. Radermecker, 2021-05-25 Working with a data set accounting for 13 000 auction sales results Anne Sophie V Radermecker explores what contemporary buyers value when purchasing paintings of unknown or uncertain authorship and which variables influence price formation mechanisms in this market segment The principle finding of this book is not only that historical names matter in the art market but so do all other alternative identification strategies that art market players use to label anonymous paintings Indirect names provisional names and spatiotemporal designations function as substitutes for real names that simulate identities create ex post stories around the artworks offered for sale and consequently reduce information asymmetry about an artist's identity with at time quite unexpected effects on price

Collectors, Commissioners, Curators Elina Gertsman, 2023-05-08 This volume celebrates the storied career of Stephen N Fliegel the former Robert Bergman Curator of Medieval Art at the Cleveland Museum of Art CMA Authors of these essays all leading curators in their fields offer insights into curatorial practices by highlighting key objects in some of the most important medieval collections in North America and Europe Metropolitan Museum of Art The Louvre the British Museum Victoria Albert Museum the Getty the Groeningemuseum The Morgan Library Vienna's Kunsthistorisches Museum and of course the CMA offering perspectives on the histories of collecting and display artistic identity and patronage with special foci on Burgundian art acquisition histories and objects in the CMA
