Abstraction Maria Lind, 2013 This anthology reconsiders crucial aspects of abstraction s resurgence in contemporary art exploring three equally significant strategies explored in current practice formal abstraction economic abstraction and social abstraction In the 1960s movements as diverse as Latin American neo concretism op art and eccentric abstraction disrupted the homogeneity universality and rationality associated with abstraction These modes of abstraction opened up new forms of engagement with the phenomenal world as well as the possibility of diverse readings of the same forms ranging from formalist and transcendental to socio economic and conceptual In the 1980s the writings of Peter Halley Fredric Jameson and others considered an increasingly abstracted world in terms of its economic social and political conditions all of which were increasingly manifested through abstract codes or sites of style Such economic abstraction is primarily addressed in art through subject or theme but Deleuze and Guattari s notion of art as abstract machine opens up possibilities for art s role in the construction of a new kind of social reality In more recent art a third strand of abstraction emerges a form of social abstraction centered on the strategy of withdrawal Social abstraction implies stepping aside a movement away from the mainstream suggesting the possibilities for art to maneuver within self
