Redaction Of Genesis:

The Redaction of Genesis Gary Rendsburg, 1986 Paperback reprint with new foreword of the original 1986 hardback Focusing his research on his own previous studies as well as studies by Cassuto Sarna Fishbane and Sasson Rendsburg clearly explains his theory that Genesis was edited redacted around symmetrical patterns He leads the reader through a step by step description of the Abraham Cycle for instance showing how content duplicated narratives and vocabulary reveal a chiastic pattern and this pattern is repeated in other sections of the book On the other hand in the primeval history the patterning is parallel rather than chiastic Overall Rendsburg makes it clear that the editing of Genesis led to a systematic design uniting the material in ways that often is overlooked

Murmuring Against Moses: The Contentious History and Contested Future of Pentateuchal Studies Jeffrey L. Morrow, John Bergsma, 2023-01-26 For much of the history of both Judaism and Christianity the Pentateuch first five books of the Bible was understood to be the unified work of a single inspired author Moses Yet the standard view in modern biblical scholarship contends that the Pentateuch is a composite text made up of fragments from diverse and even discrepant sources that originated centuries after the events it purports to describe In Murmuring against Moses John Bergsma and Jeffrey Morrow provide a critical narrative of the emergence of modern Pentateuchal studies and challenge the scholarly consensus by highlighting the weaknesses of the modern paradigms and mustering an array of new evidence for the Pentateuch's antiquity By shedding light on the past history of research and the present developments in the field Bergsma and Morrow give fresh voice to a growing scholarly dissatisfaction with standard critical approaches and make an important contribution toward charting a more promising future for Pentateuchal studies

The Pentateuch as Torah Gary N. Knoppers, Bernard M. Levinson, 2007-06-30 Since antiquity the five books of Moses have served as a sacred constitution foundational for both Jews and Samaritans However long the process of accepting the Pentateuch as authoritative instruction took this was by all accounts a monumental achievement in the history of these peoples and indeed an important moment in the history of the ancient world In the long development of Western societies the Pentateuch has served as a major influence on the development of law political philosophy and social thought The question is how where and why did this process of acceptance occur when did it occur and how long did it take

The Pentateuch Prof. Terence E. Fretheim, 2010-10-01 In this volume Terence E Fretheim seeks to introduce the Pentateuch to modern readers stressing its continuing capacity to speak a word of or about God The two chapters of Part One provide an orientation to the critical study of the Pentateuch and present a proposal for reading the Pentateuch in terms of its rhetorical strategy That strategy Fretheim argues is designed in such a way as to have a certain effect upon its readers most basically to shape their faith and life The five chapters of Part Two focus on the individual books that comprise the Pentateuch

Maternal Grief in the Hebrew Bible Ekaterina E. Kozlova, 2017-05-19 Setting out from the observation made in the social sciences that maternal grief can at times be a motor of societal change Ekaterina E Kozlova demonstrates that a similar mechanism operates also in the biblical world Kozlova argues that maternal grief is treated as a model or archetype of grief in biblical and Ancient Near Eastern literature The work considers three narratives and one poem that illustrate the transformative power of maternal grief in the biblical presentation Gen 21 Hagar and Ishmael in the desert 2 Sam 21 1 14 Rizpah versus King David 2 Sam 14 the speech of the Tekoite woman Jer 31 15 22 Rachel weeping for her children Although only one of the texts literally refers to a bereaved mother 2 Sam 21 on Rizpah all four passages draw on the motif of maternal grief and all four stage some form of societal transformation
