Rediscovering Antiquity Christopher Charles Parslow, 1995 Letter and Report on the Discoveries at Herculaneum Johann Joachim Winckelmann, 2011 This new translation brings to light the early days of scientific archaeology and the unearthing and study of Herculaneum and Pompeii as observed by the erudite and acerbic art historian Johann Joachim Winckelmann 1717-1768 His Letter published in German in 1762 displays his extensive knowledge of geology, ancient literature and art while offering a scathing critique of the Spanish Bourbon excavations around the Bay of Naples and of the officials involved He further discusses these topics in his equally controversial Report of 1764 The introduction describes the context in which these texts were written identifies various politicians, academics and collectors and elucidates topics of particular interest to Winckelmann from artifacts to local customs to the contents of ancient papyri The illustrations, particularly those from the Bourbon publication Le Antichit  di Ercolano 1757-92, illuminate how these monuments influenced contemporary perception of the ancient world Herculaneum and the House of the Bicentenary Sarah Court, Leslie Rainer, 2020-02-11 This volume provides a striking account of the life, destruction, rediscovery and cultural significance of the ancient Roman town of Herculaneum and one of its grandest residences, the House of the Bicentenary This volume vividly recounts for general readers the Roman town of Herculaneum destroyed by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 CE and uniquely preserved for nearly two thousand years Initial chapters offer an engaging historical overview of the town during antiquity including the riveting story of its rediscovery in the eighteenth century excavation in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and broad cultural significance in modern times Subsequent chapters offer an interpretive tour of the ancient town then focus on one of Herculaneum's grandest and most beautifully decorated private residences known as the House of the Bicentenary Located on the town's main street it has a range of features: original rooms, magnificent wall paintings and mosaics, and remarkable documents that illuminate daily life in the ancient world Final chapters bring the story up to date including recent discoveries about the site and its famous papyrus manuscripts as well as ongoing conservation initiatives
