A. Interpreting the Prophetic Word Willem A. VanGemenen, 2010-06-01 The diversity of prophetic voices in the Bible provides a message that is rich and variegated But the variety of the testimony can be lost by limiting one's interpretations or application of the prophetic word Interpreting the Prophetic Word helps readers understand the harmony of the voices that reveal God's purposes in redemptive history Dr Willem VanGemenen explains clearly and fully the background of the prophetic tradition He then interprets the message of the major and minor prophets using historical context and literary form and structure as tools in his analysis He concludes with an explanation of the relevance of the prophetic word today Dr VanGemenen's extensive research and scholarship is presented in a readable way to unlock the door of prophecy for readers He helps them to interpret prophecy and invites them to listen to the prophets and to live the prophetic word Pesharim Maurya P. Horgan, 2023-12-11 Among the Hebrew documents recovered from the Qumran caves are eighteen texts distinguished by the fact that each is a continuous commentary on or an interpretation of a single biblical book These texts are called pesharim because each section of interpretation following a biblical citation is introduced by one of several formulas using the word pesher interpretation plural pesharim The documents that are extant preserve portions of commentaries on the book of Psalms and on the prophetic books of Isaiah Hosea Micah Nahum Habakkuk Zephaniah The monograph presents the Hebrew texts of the pesharim an English translation and notes on the texts that cover features of the Hebrew language in these scrolls suggested restorations of lacunae and possible connections of the content of the commentary sections to historical events Following the presentation of the texts is a discussion of the literary genre of pesharim treating the structure of the documents the formulas employed the modes of interpretation and the relation of the pesharim to some other writings

Ancient Jewish and Christian Texts as Crisis Management Literature David C. Sim, Pauline Allen, 2012-07-05 This volume seeks to demonstrate for the first time that many Jewish and Christian texts in the ancient world were written as a direct response to an earlier situation of crisis that affected the author or the intended reader Presented here are texts from both traditions that were written over many centuries in order to establish that such crisis management literature was widespread in the religious and theological literature of ancient times These chosen works reveal that all manner of crises could contribute to the production or the nature of these texts including persecution political factors religious or theological differences social circumstances as well as internal or external threats By understanding this crucial element in the composition of these texts we are better able to understand the complexity of social political and religious forces that gave rise to many ancient theological texts and to appreciate the strategies which the authors used to manage these crises
