American Culture, Canons, and the Case of Elizabeth Stoddard Robert McClure Smith, Ellen Weinauer, 2014-09-30 Reconsiders the centrality of a remarkable American writer of the ante and postbellum periods Elizabeth Stoddard was a gifted writer of fiction poetry and journalism successfully published within her own lifetime esteemed by such writers as William Dean Howells and Nathaniel Hawthorne and situated at the epicenter of New York's literary world Nonetheless she has been almost excluded from literary memory and importance This book seeks to understand why By reconsidering Stoddard's life and work and her current marginal status in the evolving canon of American literary studies it raises important questions about women's writing in the 19th century and canon formation in the 20th century Essays in this study locate Stoddard in the context of her contemporaries such as Dickinson and Hawthorne while others situate her work in the context of major 19th century cultural forces and issues among them the Civil War and Reconstruction race and ethnicity anorexia and female invalidism nationalism and localism and incest One essay examines the development of Stoddard's work in the light of her biography and others probe her stylistic and philosophic originality the journalistic roots of her voice and the elliptical themes of her short fiction Stoddard's lifelong project to articulate the nature and dynamics of woman's subjectivity her challenging treatment of female appetite and will and her depiction of the complex and often ambivalent relationships that white middle class women had to their domestic spaces are also thoughtfully considered The editors argue that the neglect of Elizabeth Stoddard's contribution to American literature is a compelling example of the contingency of critical values and the instability of literary history This study asks the question Will Stoddard endure Will she continue to drift into oblivion or will a new generation of readers and critics secure her tenuous legacy

The Laurel and the Olive Benjamin Acosta-Hughes, 2024-06-04 A central much studied feature of the poetry of 3rd cent BCE Alexandria is the artistic treatment of the cultural past the reception of earlier Greek poetry and artwork in the artistic creations of a new Greco Egyptian world deracinated both geographically and temporally from the heroes and models of Archaic and Classical Greece Benjamin Acosta Hughes has devoted a 30 year professional scholarly career to the study of this reception one of both imitation and variation which took place concurrently with the massive collection and categorization of earlier Greek literature in the work of the scholars gathered under royal patronage at the Ptolemaic court in Alexandria a truly revolutionary new effort of cultural memorialization. The poets of this period among them Callimachus, Theocritus, Apollonius, and Posidippus vied in their efforts to compose works that at once celebrated their poetic heritage and at the same time marked their own poetry as original artistic creation and as critical commentary upon their earlier models. This collection will be of interest not only for readers of Archaic and Hellenistic poetry but also for readers interested in the later reception of the Alexandrians at Rome.
