Reform In Leopolds Congo:

Reform in Leopold's Congo Stanley Shaloff,1970 African Testimony in the Movement for Congo Reform

Robert Burroughs,2018-06-27 The humanitarian movement against Leopold s violent colonisation of the Congo emerged out of Europe but it depended at every turn on African input Individuals and groups from throughout the upper Congo River basin undertook journeys of daring and self sacrifice to provide evidence of atrocities for the colonial authorities missionaries and international investigators Combining archive research with attention to recent debates on the relation between imperialism and humanitarianism on trauma witnessing and postcolonial studies and on the recovery of colonial archives this book examines the conditions in which colonised peoples were able to speak about their subjection and those in which attempts at testimony were thwarted Robert Burroughs makes a major intervention by identifying African agency and input as a key factor in the Congo atrocities debate This is an important and unique book in African history imperial and colonial history and humanitarian history Official Organ of the Congo Reform Association Congo Reform Association,1909

British Humanitarianism and the Congo Reform Movement, 1896-1913 Dean Pavlakis,2016-03-09 The Congo Free State was under the personal rule of King Leopold II of the Belgians from 1885 to 1908 The accolades that attended its founding were soon contested by accusations of brutality oppression and murderous misrule but the controversy by itself proved insufficient to prompt changes Starting in 1896 concerned men and women used public opinion to influence government policy in Britain and the United States to create space for reforming forces in Belgium itself to pry the Congo from Leopold s grasp and implement reforms Examining key factors in the successes and failures of a pivotal movement that aided the colonized people of the Congo and broadened the idea of human rights British Humanitarianism and the Congo Reform Movement provides a valuable update to scholarship on the history of humanitarianism in Africa The Congo Reform movement built on the institutional experience of overseas humanitarianism the energy of evangelical political involvement and innovations in racial imperial and nationalist discourse to create political energy Often portrayed as the efforts of a few key people especially E D Morel this book demonstrates that the movement increasingly manifested itself as an institutionalized and transnational campaign with support from key government officials that ultimately made a material difference to the lives of the people of the Congo E. D. Morel's History of the Congo Reform Movement Edmund

Dene Morel,William Roger Louis,Jean Stengers,1968 The Congo from Leopold to Kabila Georges Nzongola-Ntalaja,2013-07-18 The people of the Congo have suffered from a particularly brutal colonial rule American interference after independence decades of robbery at the hands of the dictator Mobutu and periodic warfare which continues even now in the East of the country But as this insightful political history makes clear the Congolese people have not taken these multiple oppressions lying down and have fought over many years to establish democratic institutions at home and free themselves from foreign exploitation indeed these are two aspects of a single project Professor Nzongola

Ntalaja is one of his country's leading intellectuals and his panoramic understanding of the personalities and events as well as class, ethnic and other factors make his book a lucid, radical and utterly unromanticized account of his countrymen's struggle. His people's defeat and the state's post-colonial crisis are seen as resulting from a post-independence collapse of the anti-colonial alliance between the masses and the national leadership. This book is essential reading for understanding what is happening in the Congo and the Great Lakes region under the rule of the late President Kabila and now his son. It will also stand as a milestone in how to write the modern political history of Africa.

Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches

Robert Benedetto, Donald K. McKim, 2009-10-06 As its name implies, the Reformed tradition grew out of the 16th century Protestant Reformation. The Reformed churches consider themselves to be the Catholic Church reformed. The movement originated in the reform efforts of Huldrych Zwingli (1484-1531) of Zurich and John Calvin (1509-1564) of Geneva. Although the Reformed movement was dependent upon many Protestant leaders, it was Calvin's tireless work as a writer, preacher, teacher and social and ecclesiastical reformer that provided a substantial body of literature and an ethos from which the Reformed tradition grew. Today, the Reformed churches are a multicultural, multiethnic and multinational phenomenon. The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches contains information on the major personalities, events, facts, movements and beliefs of the Reformed churches. This is done through a list of acronyms and abbreviations, a chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes, a bibliography and over 800 cross-referenced dictionary entries on leaders, personalities, events, facts, movements and beliefs of the Reformed churches.

Historical Dictionary of the Reformed Churches

Benedetto, Guder, McKim, 1999-11-03 A historical dictionary of Reformed churches. It includes a detailed chronology followed by specific entries on the geographical regions where Reformed faith has been rooted. Other entries are devoted to outstanding figures who have nurtured and shaped it.

The New Encyclopedia of Social Reform ... William Dwight Porter Bliss, Rudolph Michael Binder, 1909

The Postcolonial Low Countries Elleke Boehmer, Sarah De Mul, 2012-06-01

The Postcolonial Low Countries is the first book to bring together critical and comparative approaches to the emergent field of neerlandophone postcolonial studies. The collection of essays ranges across the cultures and literatures of the Netherlands and Belgium and establishes an encounter between postcolonial theoretical discourses from both within and without the region. Each one of the contributions puts under pressure the definitive concepts of postcolonial studies in its more conventional anglophone or francophone formation as well as perceptions of the Low Countries, Belgium and the Netherlands as lying outside or to the side of the postcolonial domain. In the Low Countries, local and regional issues concerning multiculturalism and colonial belatedness have raised important questions about the possible grounds on which postcolonial critical concepts might be not only translated but also generated afresh to suit these paradoxically new contexts. As The Postcolonial Low Countries incisively demonstrates, the Low Countries demand a careful rearticulation of such postcolonial readymades as hybridity, accommodation and creolization. Gathering together contributions from both internationally renowned scholars and newly established researchers in the field The Postcolonial Low Countries maps previously underexplored national and transnational literary critical trajectories The book challenges in boundary shifting ways current readings of the so described multicultural and postcolonial Netherlands and Belgium
