

Reform Judaism

Reform Judaism is also known as Progressive or Liberal Judaism. This group within Judaism emerged in the late 1700's with the emancipation of the Jews. Reform Jews therefore believe in change and accept that ideas of the divine are expressed in human terms. Thus belief and practice may change and evolve. Reform Judaism is influenced by social, scientific, and ethical developments in modern society.

This belief in change is also mirrored in the design of the Reform synagogues which, unlike Orthodox synagogues, do not separate men and women.
