Researching Local History No 1:

Researching Local History M. Williams, 2014-05-12 This practical but inspiring book considers what local history is why researching it is valuable and rewarding and how we should go about it Issues addressed include getting oral and documentary evidence keeping records the nature of data information and knowledge and their use to create the different products of local history research Michael Williams is both a professional scientist and a local historian of long standing and he uses both sides of his experience in a text that is at once rigorous about the historical process and also a fascinating and often moving account of his adventures into the past of his own family and community He demonstrates local history methodology through his research into ancestry migration work war and religion in the towns and villages of England and Wales It is richly illustrated throughout Proceedings of the 2nd International Conference on History, Social Sciences, and Education (ICHSE 2024) Indah Wahyu Puji Utami, Wahyu Djoko Sulisty, 2024-11-16 This is an open access book The rationale behind this conference stems from a critical understanding of the gaps in our academic discourses especially related to the Unheard Voices While scholarly discussions have traditionally focussed on well documented narratives and mainstream perspectives we urgently need to redirect our attention toward the stories of various groups whose voices have often been marginalized or ignored By addressing this gap the conference aims to foreground the importance of diversifying our academic conversations and elevating voices that have been historically underrepresented to contribute to a more comprehensive and nuanced understanding of historical events social structures and educational systems We also aspire to emphasize the transformative potential of centering our discussions of unheard voices and alternative narratives at this conference In so doing we not only contribute to a more inclusive academic discussion but also pave the way for more innovative research methodologies fresh perspectives and deeper understanding of multifaceted challenges and lived experiences of diverse groups As we navigate the intersections of history social sciences and education we invite scholars practitioners educators and students to join us in this endeavor This conference presents an opportunity not only for the exchange of ideas but also for the establishment of international networks committed to amplifying unheard voices in history social sciences and education

New Directions in Local History Since Hoskins Christopher Dyer, Andrew Hopper, Evelyn Lord, 2011-10 Utilizing the techniques developed by renowned local historian W G Hoskins in his landmark study published 50 years ago Local History in England this book demonstrates how local history has evolved as a discipline over the last half century Fifteen historians write about a variety of local history subjects that are significant in their own right but which also point to current trends in the field They show how local historians use their sources systematically from the nonverbal evidence of buildings to various types of electronic sources All periods between the middle ages and the early twenty first century are explored covering many parts of England from Skye to the Kent coast and discussing topics that include social economic religious legal intellectual and cultural history Archeological Research Series, 1962 A Field
