Researching And Writing A Dissertation For Business Students:

Researching and Writing a Dissertation Colin Fisher, 2011-01-10 Researching and Writing your Dissertation is an essential guide for students undertaking research projects as part of a postgraduate qualification in business or management. Seven accessible chapters guide the reader through the process from choosing a topic to gathering and analysing data and finally writing and presenting the results. This book is ideal for students who may not be taking a taught and assessed module in research methods but are undertaking management research for the first time and will benefit from guidance on the process from start to finish.

Researching and Writing Dissertations Roy Horn, 2012-02-01 From finding a topic to writing and reviewing your work Researching and Writing Dissertations is an essential tool for anyone working on a dissertation or business report. This new edition is now suitable for students studying the CIPD Level 7 Advanced units Investigating a Business Issue and Using Information in HR but is equally relevant for all non CIPD students too. Covering everything from strategies for finding and developing a dissertation topic and how to develop a research proposal through to what methodology to use and how to analyse your data, this is the only book you need to write clear, effective and compelling dissertations and reports. In addition to practical guidance on the researching and writing up of projects, this book includes essential guidance on effective time management and how to ensure that projects are completed and submitted on time, as well as invaluable insights through real life student and supervisor comments. Fully supported by online resources including an instructor's manual and lecturer slides, as well as templates, checklists and quizzes for students, Researching and Writing Dissertations is a book that anyone working on dissertations, research projects or business reports can't afford to be without.

Researching and Writing a Dissertation for Business Students Colin M. Fisher, 2004 Success in your dissertation is crucial to your overall success in your master's qualification. Taking a step by step approach, this book guides you through choosing, planning, researching and writing your dissertation. You will be encouraged to develop relevant skills and each step is illustrated by an example of what to do and sometimes of what not to do. Crucially, the assessment criteria are explained so that your work is focussed around the relevant academic objectives. Acknowledging that project work is often not sequential but demands consideration of several stages at once, it advises how to juggle these challenges. Key features of this book: Focuses on how to survive and excel in your dissertation, aligning your work with academic assessment criteria. Takes a step by step, skills based approach, guiding you through all aspects of your dissertation. Helps develop arguing and writing skills useful in academia and the world of work beyond your dissertation. Doesn't forget its sense of humour and encourages you not to forget yours. Colin Fisher is a principal lecturer in Human Resource Management at Nottingham Business School, Nottingham Trent University. He and Alan Lovell have recently published Business Ethics Values with Pearson Education. Colin has also helped hundreds of Nottingham Trent University students through their master's projects.
