Resistencia Y Utopía Tomo 2:

Resistencia y utopía Antonio García de León, 1997 Sacrificing The Forest Karen O'Brien, 2018-05-04 The Selva Lacandona of Chiapas Mexico has received a tremendous amount of attention since the Zapatista uprising began in 1994. Concerns have focused on both the rapid rate of deforestation in Mexico's largest tropical rain forest and the social marginalization of its inhabitants which is considered to be a root cause of the uprising. In this book Karen O'Brien presents an insightful analysis of how deforestation and social struggles are related in this region and then considers the implications of these links for the remaining forest. A critical analysis of deforestation rates and patterns in the Selva Lacandona region provides the point of departure for this study. Using satellite imagery and her own field work O'Brien presents an original estimate of forest loss. She then uses an approach derived from political ecology to trace the links between social processes and deforestation. Instead of focusing exclusively on the driving forces of deforestation she argues that an analysis of the countervailing forces of conservation efforts is crucial to understanding the configuration of the present day forest and the conflicts that surround it. Unless these forces can be fused O'Brien contends the future of the Selva Lacandona will continue to be shaped by the tensions among social, economic and environmental objectives. A valuable tool for scholars of deforestation, environmental change and political ecology Sacrificing the Forest will also be of interest to readers trying to understand the current situation in Chiapas.

Pedagogías decoloniales Tomo II Walsh, Catherine, 2016-12-29 La compilación Pedagogías decoloniales se nos presenta una vez más como un libro necesario y urgente en su nuevo tomo. En él Catherine Walsh da continuidad a su propuesta de pensar la relación entre pedagogía y descolonialidad y tal como ya nos tiene acostumbrados recrea una mirada amplia, justa y comprometida que permite aglutinar diferentes abordajes desde actores muy diversos haciendo posible un tratamiento mixto en donde voces de académicos y activistas se conjugan a las voces de activistas comprometidos con la producción de pensamientos. Contraviniendo lo que comúnmente es entendido como el campo pedagógico Walsh nos propone una lectura desde el grito, desde la grieta, desde la urgencia de este tiempo, haciendo evidente que el ejercicio de pensar y hacer pedagogía otra implica restaurar el vínculo entre pedagogía y resistencia, pedagogía y territorio, pedagogía y defensa de la vida en fin, entre pedagogía y re-existencia. La propuesta de una pedagogía viva de por para y desde la resistencia se hace evidente en la selección de textos y autorxs. Un libro en donde la experiencia y la voz colectiva predominan en donde el ejercicio escritural surge de la reflexión del hacer, interviniendo la forma convencional de construcción de conocimientos. Celebremos la ocasión y aprovechemos el regalo.

Constructing Citizenship Catherine A. Nolan-Ferrell, 2012-05-01 During the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries people living in the coffee producing region of the Sierra Madre mountains along the Pacific Coast of Mexico and Guatemala paid little attention to national borders. The Mexican Revolution, particularly during the 1930s reconstruction phase, ruptured economic and social continuity because access to revolutionary reforms depended on claiming Mexican national identity. Impoverished, often indigenous rural workers on both sides of the border used shifting ideas of citizenship and cultural belonging to gain power and protect their economic and social interests With this book Catherine Nolan Ferrell builds on recent theoretical approaches to state formation and transnationalism to explore the ways that governments elites and marginalized laborers claimed and contested national borders By investigating how various groups along the Mexico Guatemala border negotiated nationality Constructing Citizenship offers insights into the complex development of transnational communities the links between identity and citizenship and the challenges of integrating disparate groups into a cohesive nation Entwined with a labor history of rural workers Nolan Ferrell also shows how labor struggles were a way for poor Mexicans and migrant Guatemalans to assert claims to national political power and social inclusion Combining oral histories with documentary research from local regional and national archives to provide a complete picture of how rural laborers along Mexico s southern border experienced the years before during and after the Mexican Revolution this book will appeal not only to Mexicanists but also to scholars interested in transnational identity border studies social justice and labor history

Es una etnografía de la naturaleza de los enfrentamientos y negociaciones que los indígenas sostuvieron con el gobierno entre 1994 y 2001 un análisis del papel que jugaron los derechos y culturas indígenas durante la contienda y una reflexión sobre las relaciones que entablaron las organizaciones indígenas con otros actores políticos para lograr sus objetivos.
