Resolving International Intellectual Property Disputes David W. Plant,1999 Arbitration of International Intellectual Property Disputes Thomas D. Halket,2012-05-01 The Arbitration of International Intellectual Property Disputes which is designed not only for arbitration counsel and arbitrators but also for in house counsel and transactional lawyers provides a thorough guide to the use of arbitration to resolve these disputes Both practical as well as scholarly it starts by exploring how and why arbitration can provide the best way to resolve these disputes and how to draft an effective arbitration provision It then covers the principal unique issues which can arise in the arbitration itself from choosing the tribunal through confidentiality discovery validity determinations choice of law provisional and final remedies and enforceability With the world more and more dependent upon technology of all types the continued and growing importance of intellectual property cannot be understated There has been and will continue to be an accompanying explosion in the number and complexity of transactions in which intellectual property is a critical if not the critical element Many of these transactions cross national boundaries as do the disputes which inevitably arise from them But international intellectual property disputes present complexities not encountered in either intellectual property disputes which are confined to one country or other international commercial disputes The Arbitration of International Intellectual Property Disputes will serve as a handy reference and guide for navigating through the complex maze of intellectual property and arbitration

International Intellectual Property Arbitration Trevor Cook,Trevor M. Cook,Alejandro I.
