Meeting the Challenge Ellen Rose, 1999-03-16 This collection demonstrates how feminist pedagogy can be implemented in a variety of institutional and disciplinary settings Unlike most of the current literature it provides a vast array of examples of feminist pedagogy in action It suggests practical ways of creating classroom environments open to feminist and anti racist teaching way feminists at universities can intervene in community programs and how to apply feminist pedagogy to new challenges such as distance education cyberspace fiscal constraints and the changing political climate Meeting the Challenge also looks to other nations for examples of how to successfully implement feminist pedagogy Femininity, Time and Feminist Art C. Johnson, 2013-08-08 This book examines feminist art of the 1970s through contemporary art made by women In a series of readings of artworks by amongst others Tracey Emin Vanessa Beecroft Hannah Wilke and Carolee Schneemann the reader is taken on a journey through maternal desire fantasies of escape and failed femininity Liminal Discourses Daniela Carpi, Jeanne Gaakeer, 2013-03-22 The past few decades in legal and literary studies have challenged the boundaries raised by the different concepts of law and literature espoused by a great variety of theorists Law s traditionally assumed disciplinary autonomy has been challenged by those who have pursued interdisciplinary methods of research In particular the concept of the sublime has moved out of the strictly philosophical and literary fields and crossed the borders between disciplines finding an application also in the juridical field On one hand this volume proposes that the ethical aspect involved in the legal sublime is to contain the arrogance of the law On the other hand the volume draws attention to the and of interdisciplinary literary legal studies and offers new daring comparisons between philosophical fields and between apparently distant historical periods

Experimental Philosophy and its Critics Joachim Horvath, Thomas Grundmann, 2013-09-13 Experimental philosophy is one of the most recent and controversial developments in philosophy Its basic idea is rather simple to test philosophical thought experiments and philosophers intuitions about them with scientific methods mostly taken from psychology and the social sciences The ensuing experimental results such as the cultural relativity of certain philosophical intuitions has engaged and at times infuriated many more traditionally minded armchair philosophers since then In this volume the metaphilosophical reflection on experimental philosophy is brought yet another step forward by engaging some of its most renowned proponents and critics in a lively and controversial debate In addition to that the volume also contains original experimental research on personal identity and philosophical temperament as well as state of the art essays on central metaphilosophical issues like thought experiments the nature of intuitions or the status of philosophical expertise This book was originally published as a special issue of Philosophical Psychology Virginia Woolf: Critical responses to the short stories, sketches and essays, feminist treatises and biographies Eleanor Jane McNeas, 1994

Islamic Law and the Challenges of Modernity Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Barbara Freyer Stowasser, 2004-03-27 Since Europeans first colonized Arab lands in the 19th century they have been pressing to have the area s indigenous laws and legal systems accord with Western models Although most Arab states now have national codes of law that reflect Western influence fierce internal struggles continue over how to interpret Islamic law particularly in the areas of gender and family From different geographical and ideological points across the contemporary Arab world Haddad and Stowasser demonstrate the range of views on just what Islam s legal heritage in the region should be For either law or religion classes Islamic Law and the Challenges of Modernity provides the broad historical overview and particular cases needed to understand this contentious issue Women Breaking

Boundaries Janet Kalven, 1999-10-28 Through memoir interviews and historical overview Women Breaking Boundaries chronicles the evolution in the United States of the Grail an organization of Catholic lay women dedicated to restoring the Christian spirit to all aspects of life Janet Kalven who has been part of the movement since its inception in the early 1940s traces its development through 1995

Resources in Education, 1997 A Reader in Latina Feminist Theology María Pilar Aquino, Daisy L. Machado, Jeanette Rodríguez, 2010-01-01 Speaking for the growing community of Latina feminist theologians the editors of this volume write With the emergence and growth of the feminist theologies of liberation we no longer wait for others to define or validate our experience of life and faith We want to express in our own words our plural ways of experiencing God and our plural ways of living our faith And these ways have a liberative tone With twelve original essays by emerging and established Latina feminist theologians this first of its kind volume adds the perspectives realities struggles and spiritualities of U S Latinas to the larger feminist theological discourse The editors have gathered writings from both Roman Catholics and Protestants and from various Latino a communities The writers address a wide array of theological concerns popular religion denominational presence and attraction methodology lived experience analysis of nationhood and interpretations of life lived on a border that is not only geographic but also racial gendered linguistic and religious

Introducing Christian Ethics Samuel Wells, Ben Quash, 2017-05-08 Introducing Christian Ethics 2e now thoroughly revised and updated offers an unparalleled introduction to the study of Christian Ethics mapping and exploring all the major ethical approaches and offering thoughtful insights into the complex moral challenges facing people today This highly successful text has been thoughtfully updated based on considerable feedback to include increased material on Catholic perspectives further case studies and the augmented use of introductions and summaries Uniquely redefines the field of Christian ethics along three strands universal ethics for anyone subversive ethics for the excluded and ecclesial ethics for the church Encompasses Christian ethics in its entirety offering students a substantial overview by re mapping the field and exploring the differences in various ethical approaches Provides a successful balance between description analysis and critique Structured so that it can be used alongside a companion volume Christian Ethics An Introductory Reader which further illustrates and amplifies the diversity of material and arguments explored here

Homer's Daughters Fiona Cox, Elena Theodorakopoulos, 2019 Charting the reception of Homeric epic in the work of women writers around the globe since 1914 and covering a range of genres and literary and political movements this volume sheds new light on an understudied facet of Homer's afterlife and on how contemporary women continue to shape the field of classical reception in new and distinctive ways
