Laura Barbara L. Estrin, 1994-12-15 How do men imagine women In the poetry of Petrarch and his English successors Wyatt Donne and Marvell the male poet persistently imagines pursuing a woman Laura whom he pursues even as she continues to deny his affections Critics have long held that in objectifying Laura these male authored texts deny the imaginative intellectual and physical life of the woman they idealize In Laura Barbara L Estrin counters this traditional view by focusing not on the generative powers of the male poet but on the subjectivity of the imagined woman and the imaginative space of the poems she occupies Through close readings of the Rime sparse and the works of Wyatt Donne and Marvell Estrin uncovers three Lauras Laura Daphne who denies sexuality Laura Eve who returns the poet's love and Laura Mercury who reinvents her own life Estrin claims that in these three guises Laura subverts both genre and gender thereby introducing multiple desires into the many layers of the poems Drawing upon genre and gender theories advanced by Jean Fran ois Lyotard and Judith Butler to situate female desire in the poem's framework Estrin shows how genre and gender in the Petrarchan tradition work together to undermine the stability of these very concepts Estrin's Laura constitutes a fundamental reconceptualization of the Petrarchan tradition and contributes greatly to the postmodern reassessment of the Renaissance period In its descriptions of how early modern poets formulate questions about sexuality society and poetry Laura will appeal to scholars of the English and Italian Renaissance of gender studies and of literary criticism and theory generally

Or, Songs of Twilight Dhan Gopal Mukerji, 2021-06-21 Sandhya or Songs of Twilight 1917 is a poetry collection by Dhan Gopal Mukerji. Published while Mukerji was a young student in California, Sandhya or Songs of Twilight is the second collection of poems from the first Indian writer to gain a popular audience in the United States. Lyrical and romantic, Mukerji's poems capture his commitment to beauty while maintaining his sense of isolation and exile as a young man living far from home. In Symbolism, the collection's opening poem, Mukerji is a poet in search of a song. Tongueless the bell lute without a song. It is not night. It is God's dawn. Silence its unending song. Desperate for the beauty and truth of the world outside, pain's window he finds Faith's candle lit, lighting Eternity's scroll for the soul to read at last. Lyrically gifted and profoundly mysterious, Mukerji presents his creative process as a struggle with human emotions. Later, he grounds his feeling in the country he left behind: O frail faint call which I seek to echo, O breath of love laden with the aroma of my soul. Why seek I ever without O guest at my door. In After a Bengali Song, he provides a powerful image of isolation and longing from a heart that remains without for as long as his exile continues. Although he never returned to his native country, Mukerji left an inspiring legacy through his literary achievement and unwavering commitment to Indian independence. With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript, this edition of Dhan Gopal Mukerji's Sandhya or Songs of Twilight is a classic of Indian American literature reimagined for modern readers. Moore talks about the idea that God doesn't expect us to be perfect. Instead, God simply asks us to be faithful, and then God will do and be what we cannot. Moore, through personal experience, shares how God has the power to redeem God can take our weaknesses, our foibles, our feeble efforts, and redeem them and use them for good. God can take our defeats and turn them into victories. This book contains a discussion guide.

Reagan, 2018-07-04 T James Reagan has novelized Richard Kelly's 2006 cult film Southland Tales into a complete vision of a complex story of power politics and porno. The title refers to the Southland, a name used by locals to refer to Southern California and Greater Los Angeles. Set in the then near future of 2008 as part of an alternate history, the novel is an expanded portrait of Los Angeles and a satiric commentary on the military industrial complex and the infotainment industry. Combining the theatrical cut, the Cannes cut, and the graphic prequel novels, T James Reagan offers his trademark unflinching post-Empire vision on Kelly's ambitious sprawling narrative. This novel can be downloaded for free at <https://archive.org/details/SouthlandTalesTJamesReagan> <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1wFkv2lfjD2mTk8eIVD8T0T8w2C9KipMn/view>. T James Reagan is also the author of Pushing Closer, a quiet novel about starting over and unexpectedly finding love. Lovetrust is a campus novel that focuses on the distance we place between each other. Beach House Burning is a sequel to Lovetrust, set fifteen years after Reagan's debut novel Famous For Nothing, a satire of celebrity blogs. Leeds House is a horror satire for the Millennial generation. Empire Waste is a dark exploration of New York's fashion industry. HOT BLONDE GIRLS WITH HEAVY EYE MAKEUP is a satire about cancel culture. Southland Tales: The Complete Saga is a novelization of Richard Kelly's Donnie Darko cult classic film. Neon Blacktop is a fiction novel inspired by the films of Richard Kelly, like Donnie Darko and The Box. MISS JULIE 2020 is a remake of August Strindberg's stage play Miss Julie. This reimagining is about a news organization trying to figure out how to cover a rising health crisis.

Without Rest Daniel Strasel, 2020-09-21 A tale of love and madness. When he confronts the truth, a lovesick god has all of his dreams turned into nightmares. In a moment of passion, a lovesick god willingly fails and breaks the divine law. Desperate to nourish and cultivate his renegade love, he searches for the answers to the questions on his heart. Told that he must go to the darkest place in all creation and that only there will he gain what he needs in order to succeed, he does not hesitate in beginning his dread adventure. When he later finds himself in such a place, he does indeed achieve the means to win his love forever, although he did not fully understand the cost. In the mortal realm, an unlikely group of would-be heroes find themselves hunted by powers they cannot possibly hope to overcome. Captured and taken to a place where sanity is a commodity, they keep their spirits high by helping those around them as they look for a missing companion. While they are searching, they discover much to their surprise that they are in the middle of a secret fight amongst the gods. In the end, love is both triumphant and forsaken in this charming yet mordant tale of gods and heroes.

A Student's Dream Malcolm Hemmings, It is the turn of the 16th Century and the world has entered a golden age of art, invention, and architecture. This renaissance of literature and learning in Europa is suddenly thrown into overdrive when a chosen few Stormtouched begin displaying supernatural abilities. Torn between the age's burgeoning love of science and the dark promises of magic, Europa has become a powder keg of clockwork and sorcery. Elena Lucciano doesn't care about increasing mankind's knowledge or exploring the mysterious workings of magic. Even though she herself is Stormtouched, Elena doesn't have high ambitions.
