Restitution and Equity Peter Birks, Francis D. Rose, 2000

The Principles of Equity & Trusts Graham Virgo, 2018 The Principles of Equity and Trusts brings an engaging contextual approach to the subject Graham Virgo overcomes the complex issues in the study of trusts and equity with unparalleled clarity offering a rigorous and insightful commentary on the law and its contemporary contexts

Constructive and Resulting Trusts Charles Mitchell, 2010-03-03 Constructive and resulting trusts have a long history in English law and the law which governs them continues to develop as they are pressed into service to perform a wide variety of different functions for example to support the working of express trusts and other fiduciary relationships to allocate family property rights and to undo the consequences of commercial fraud However while their conceptual flexibility makes them enormously useful it also makes them hard to understand In the twelve essays collected in this volume the authors shed new light on various aspects of the law governing constructive and resulting trusts revisiting current controversies bringing new historical material to the fore and offering new theoretical perspectives

Trusts Law Graham Moffat, Gerry Bean, Rebecca Probert, 2009-09-03 Always the serious student's choice of a Trusts Law textbook this new edition once again provides a clear examination of the rules in the detail required by the advanced undergraduate This fifth edition retains its hallmark combination of a contextualized approach and a commercial focus The authors commentary has been increased throughout this new edition whilst the fresh design clearly highlights the cases and materials extracts Recent statutory developments such as the Charities Act 2006 and the impact of a wealth of new cases are explored the examination of the law of trusts and taxation is restructured and comparative examples help students understand the new directions being taken in the areas of trust law and equitable remedies Trusts Law brings a modern perspective to a subject often perceived as traditional with suggestions for further reading guiding the student to contemporary debates

Equity & Trusts Alastair Hudson, 2014-05-27 This new edition considers all of the academic commentary governing the area of equity and trusts in particular the emerging law of restitution and the raft of new case law over the 1990s It is suitable both as a scholarly reference and as a resource for students

Australian Consumer Law Building on the detailed treatment of remedies and their broad functions across a range of private law categories the new edition also offers expanded coverage of vindictory damages debt specific restitution and coercive remedies With its systematic and accessible approach this text enables students and practitioners to develop a coherent understanding of remedial law and to analyse legal problems and identify appropriate remedial solutions Justifying Private Law Remedies C.E.F. Rickett, 2008-06-26 In August 2006 the third Australian Obligations Conference was hosted in Brisbane by the TC Beirne School of Law The theme of the Conference was Justifying Private Law Remedies This book contains a number of the papers delivered at that Conference presented under several categories but all dealing with the fundamental issue of justification General Concepts Performance Compensation Punishment and Restitution and Disgorgement The authors are largely drawn from the legal academy and include Canadian Australian British and New Zealand scholars The collection will be of interest to all those concerned with the role nature and place of remedies in the private law of the common law world The ^AOxford Handbook of Fiduciary Law Evan J. Criddle, Paul B. Miller, Robert H. Sitkoff, 2019-04-29 The Oxford Handbook of Fiduciary Law provides a comprehensive overview of fiduciary law explaining how fiduciary principles operate across diverse substantive fields and legal systems Unparalleled in its breadth and depth of coverage the Handbook represents an invaluable resource for practitioners policymakers scholars and students of this essential field of law Measuring Damages in the Law of Obligations Sirko Harder, 2010-07-12 This book challenges certain differences between contract tort and equity in relation to the measure in a broad sense of damages Damages are defined as the monetary award made by a court in consequence of a breach of contract a tort or an equitable wrong In all these causes of action damages usually aim to put the claimant into the position the claimant would be in without the wrong Even though the main objective of damages is thus the same for each cause of action their measure is not While some aspects of the measure of damages are more or less harmonised between contract tort and equity e g causation in fact and mitigation significant differences exist in relation to 1 remoteness of damage which is the question of whether when and to which degree damage needs to be foreseeable to be recoverable 2 the compensability of non pecuniary loss such as pain and suffering distress and loss of reputation 3 the effect of contributory negligence which is the victim's contribution to the occurrence of the wrong or the ensuing loss through unreasonable conduct prior to the wrong 4 the circumstances under which victims of wrongs can claim the gain the wrongdoer has made from the wrong and 5 the availability and scope of exemplary or punitive damages For each of the five topics this book examines the present position in contract tort and equity and establishes the differences between the three areas It goes on to scrutinise the arguments in defence of existing differences The conclusion on each topic is that the present differences between contract tort and equity cannot be justified on merits and should be removed through a harmonisation of the relevant principles Structure and Justification in Private Law C.E.F. Rickett, Ross Grantham, 2008-02-27 Peter Birks's tragically early death and his immense influence around the world led immediately to the call for a volume of essays in his honour by scholars who had known him as a colleague teacher and friend One such volume published in 2006 contained essays largely from scholars working in England Mapping the Law Essays in Memory of Peter Birks edited by Andrew Burrows and Lord Rodger This volume contains the essays of those outside England who chose to honour Peter and appears later than the English volume reflecting the far flung habitations of its authors The essays contained in this volume are focussed around the law of unjust enrichment but are not narrowly preoccupied instead they move freely from unjust enrichment to some of the most profound questions in private law concerning taxonomy the relationship between contract property and unjust enrichment and the place of remedies within private law This volume featuring the work of some of the world s great private lawyers provides a fitting tribute to a great scholar and a series of thought provoking essays inspired by his example Contributors Kit Barker Michael Bryan Peter Butler Hanoch Dagan Simone Degeling Daniel Friedmann Mark Gergen Ross Grantham Steve Hedley John McCamus Mitchell McInnes Eoin O Dell Charles Rickett Struan Scott Emily Sherwin Stephen Smith Richard Sutton Michael Tilbury Stephen Waddams Peter Watts Ernest Weinrib Eric Descheemaeker
