From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review Mechanisms? Artwell Nhemachena, Victor Warikandwa, 2019-04-22 Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabes refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and ontology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a faade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy

Can God Save My Village? Jangkhoham Haokip, 2014-08-14 The introduction of Christianity by missionaries in North East India without ignoring the positive contribution failed to provide a sound theological foundation for the people of this region in their quest for identity and liberation In this publication the author a native of the region investigates the struggle for identity among the tribal people of North East India and more particularly the Kuki people of Manipur Exploring the social cultural religious and political changes brought to the people of this region the book highlights their real struggle for justice and dignity Outlining aspects of the Kuki tradition as well as dialoguing with Dalit and tribal theology the author proposes possible contributions to a local theology that can help in shaping a new sense of identity for the tribal people of North East India

East Asian International Relations in History Kyu-hyun Jo, 2024-08-28 This book provides a sweeping overview of East Asian international relations in history from the nineteenth century onwards with a focus on Korea and its relationship with East Asia and the USA In contrast with many books which concentrate exclusively on the twentieth century this book offers a long term perspective on modernity and modernization in East Asia It addresses the tributary system the Meiji Restoration Japanese imperialism in East Asia and the Cold War in East Asia It also incorporates the First and Second Indochina Wars from Vietnam s perspective and expands the geographical scope of East Asia beyond the traditional framework of Korea Japan and China The book begins with the tributary system as a starting point of East Asian modernity in contrast to the old view that the tributary system was not a modern system It rejects the idea that Japan was modernizing while Korea remained stagnant and shows why Japanese colonialism continues to be controversial and problematic Through the book s emphasis on Vietnam s perspective of the Indochina Wars it places much value on nationalism anti imperialism and decolonization as forces of modernity and modernization Relevant to scholars and students in history international relations and East Asian studies more broadly the book brings with it a novel fresh and innovative approach to East Asian history A Reference Guide to English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 Evolution and Bahá'í Belief Keven Brown, Eberhard Von Kitzing, 2001 Studies in the Babi and Baha i Religions Volume 12 This is the first and only serious academic treatment of the subject of evolution in the teachings of the Bah Faith The authors provide an exhaustive discussion of the historical context of Abdu l Bah s remarks on and objections to the Darwinian theories of his time presenting modern alternatives to contemporary interpretations of his remarks Keven Brown s essay investigates the religious controversy that has surrounded the subject of evolution both within Christianity and within Islam during Abdu l Bah s time He provides a valuable summary of the views of those the Master called the philosophers of the East Then from the perspective of modern science Eberhard von Kitzing discusses the impact of evolution on the study of biology and suggests that Abdu l Bah s teachings have been widely misunderstood This book will expand and deepen discussion on evolution in the Bah community
