Restructuring Of America A Futurist Projection:

The Restructuring of America William Merwin, 1998 Multiculturalism in a Cross-national Perspective Michael A. Burayidi, 1997 This book provides a discussion of multiculturalism from a global perspective It progresses from a discussion of the ideological and philosophical arguments for multiculturalism through its political public policy and socio economic dimensions Multicultural practices from Canada Germany India Israel Nigeria Rwanda the United Kingdom and the United States are discussed The response to multiculturalism differs from one country to the other and is influenced by the political context rules of immigration colonial legacy domestic institutional structures and pressure from interest groups Because multiculturalism is a contentious issue as groups vie for limited resources the debate on multiculturalism will be a heated one Governments can facilitate the process by creating an environment that enables the exchange of ideas without conflict and antagonism Canadians, 1991 Restructuring American Foreign Policy John D. Steinbruner, 2010-12-01 In the final days of this century the United States will need to amend the core of its foreign policy a formidable task in a large democracy American thinking still grounded in post World War II perceptions has failed to keep pace with the demands of a changing world New realities in the U S and international economies in security conditions and in world politics call for restructuring American foreign policy The policy experts contributing to this volume state the process of public debate that must precede the hard political choices ahead Barry P Bosworth and Robert Z Lawrence consider the ramifications of an American economy no longer an implicit source of leverage in pursuing policy objectives William W Kaufmann prescribes ways to preserve international commitments and ensure American security in spite of fiscally constrained defense budgets John D Steinbruner discusses efforts to achieve a more stable military balance In a related chapters Kenneth Flamm and Thomas L McNaugher propose a redraft of American investment patterns to make the defense technology more consistent with contemporary security requirements All of this domestic restructuring will take place within the constraints and opportunities created by recent changes in China and the Soviet Union continued economic expansion in Japan and persistent unrest in the Middle East Harry Harding and Ed A Hewett review the prospects for reform in China and the Soviet Union Harry Harding and Edward Lincoln describe the surge in many Asian economies and the increased importance of Japan as a world power And in the final chapter Harold H Saunders turns attention to the Middle East where identifying desirable solutions continues to be far easier than finding realistic methods for achieving them The inauguration of a new administration creates an opportunity for political debate a new conceptual focus and effective political consensus

Fry,2014-07-22 The American people generally perceive that the United States is headed in the wrong direction US influence worldwide is waning Capitol Hill is not adequately representing the public s interests and their personal economic wellbeing is in jeopardy This book squarely tackles the list of fault lines currently facing the United States including among others Beltway dysfunctionality concentrated wealth and income not seen since the late 1920s an ultra expensive and inefficient health care system runaway entitlement spending stagnant upward mobility debilitating crony capitalism and incoherent foreign policy Even more importantly the book offers explicit policy recommendations for solving each fault line relying extensively on best practices in the public and private sectors both at home and abroad Moreover the author emphasizes that the United States is entering a special period which provides it with advantages not found anywhere else in the world a major energy boom favorable demographics unparalleled high technology innovation huge inward investment flows from abroad the revival of its manufacturing sector and its magnetism in attracting to its shores the very best and brightest from around the world Dr Fry asserts that it is quite reasonable to assume that the United States will enter a Renaissance America period by 2030 Doing so however will require painful short term sacrifices major policy changes and the restoration of vibrant representative government In effect the American people must overwhelmingly embrace Abraham Lincoln s vision of governance of the people by the people and for the people America's Best School Teachers and Principals United States. Dunmire,2011-05-25 This monograph examines the rhetorical nature and function of representations of the future in political discourse focusing on political actors use of hegemonic images of future reality to achieve their political goals It argues that a key ideological dimension of political rhetoric lies in politicians use of projections of the future to legitimate policies and actions This argument is grounded in systemic functional and critical discourse analyses of the Bush Doctrine the U S policy response to the September 11 terrorist attacks which sanctioned a preemptive military posture By focusing on the discursive construction of the future this project addresses a lacunae in critical discourse studies and calls attention to the crucial role that the discourse and practice of futurology has played in post Cold War politics and society It will be of value to scholars interested in the discourses of politics the war on terror U S national security and futurology
