Resurrection An Interdisciplinary Symposium On The Resurrection Of Jesus:

The Resurrection Stephen T. Davis, Daniel Kendall, Gerald O'Collins, 1997-05-29 Eminent scholars from a wide range of theological disciplines debate the central truth of Christianity the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead The many schools of thought include moral theology philosophy biblical studies and fundamental theology The Economy of Salvation Matthew Charlton, Timothy R Eberhart, Jurgen Moltmann, 2016-03-31 Over the last four decades the focus of M Douglas Meeks s work has placed him at the centre of many of the most important developments in theological reflection and education As a political ecclesial and metaphorical theologian Meeks has given witness to the oikonomia of the triune God the Homemaker who creates the conditions of Home for the whole of creation in critical conversation with contemporary economic social and political theory The essays of this volume were written to honour Meeks Cal Turner Chancellor Professor Emeritus of Theology at Vanderbilt University Divinity School by addressing the theme of God s economy of salvation from biblical historical ecclesial and theological perspectives In an age of ecological devastation and economic injustice Meeks teaches us how to place our hope as disciples of Jesus as members of local congregations as stewards of institutional life and as global citizens in God s power for life over death through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit These essays will serve to enliven and clarify this hope for the sake of the world God so loves The Bible, Justice, and Public Theology David J.

Neville, 2014-10-09 Public theology is a developing field of discourse concerned to address matters of pressing public concern in theological perspective for the common good Themes of ecology poverty human rights and especially justice feature prominently in its discourse Although justice is also a prominent theme in the Bible there is no single perspective on what constitutes justice in the Bible and no single view on how biblical perspectives on justice should contribute to contemporary discussion regarding the meaning and implementation of justice Informed and inspired by Christopher Marshall s landmark work on Compassionate Justice Cascade Books 2012 in dialogue with Jesus parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son this collection of studies addresses various interrelations between the Bible justice and public theology Marshall himself proposes that certain parables of Jesus are paradigmatic for public theology and some contributors respond to different dimensions of his treatment of the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son in terms of restorative justice Other contributors by contrast examine broader related concerns such as justice in biblical theological and philosophical perspective the hermeneutics of engagement for justice the relation between feminist theology and restorative justice biblical resources for public theology and popular culture as both a conversation partner with and a medium for public theology

The Rise and Fall of the Afterlife Jan N. Bremmer, 2003-09-02 Belief in the afterlife is still very much alive in Western civilisation even though the truth of its existence is no longer universally accepted Surprisingly however heaven hell and the immortal soul were all ideas which arrived relatively late in the ancient world Originally Greece and Israel the cultures that gave us Christianity had only the vaguest ideas of an afterlife So where did these concepts come from and why did they develop In this fascinating learned but highly readable book Jan N Bremmer one of the foremost authorities on ancient religion takes a fresh look at the major developments in the Western imagination of the afterlife from the ancient Greeks to the modern near death experience History and Hermeneutics Murray Rae,2005-01-01 Examines the relation between historiography and hermeneutics on three hundred years of western thought The author offers a theological account of what history is centred on the categories of creation and divine promise and proposes that it is within this theological conception of history that the Bible may be understood on its own terms The Jesus Legend Paul Rhodes Eddy,Gregory A. Boyd,2007-08 Confronts the legendary Jesus case showing how the Synoptic Gospels are the most historically probable representation of the actual Jesus of history Religion, Supernaturalism, the Paranormal and Pseudoscience Homayun Sidky,2019-11-30 Religion Supernaturalism the Paranormal and Pseudoscience provides a comprehensive rejoinder to the challenges posed to science scientific anthropology evolutionary theory and rationality by the advocates of supernatural paranormal and pseudoscientific perspectives and modes of thought associated with the current rise of irrationalism antiintellectualism and emboldened religious fundamentalism and violence Drawing upon H Sidky s scientific anthropological background and ethnographic field research of supernatural and paranormal beliefs and practices in several cultures over three decades the book answers several important questions Why do humans have a proclivity for the supernatural and paranormal thinking Why has humanity remained shackled to sets of ideas inherited from a violent past that have no basis in reality and which bestow an illusionary solace promote bloodshed endless cruelties and fervent hatreds and have come at a high cost Why have ancient superstitions been held as sacred inviolate truths while other aspects of the archaic belief systems of which they were a part have long been discarded Why have not humans outgrown religion and paranormal beliefs

An Introduction to the New Testament M. Eugene Boring,2012-10-13 This thoroughly researched textbook from well respected scholar M Eugene Boring presents a user friendly introduction to the New Testament books Boring approaches the New Testament as a historical document one that requires using a hands on critical method Moreover he asserts that the New Testament is the church s book in that it was written selected preserved and transmitted by the church Boring goes on to explore the historical foundation and formation of the New Testament within the context of pre Christian Judaism and the world of Jesus and the early church He then examines the individual books of the New Testament providing helpful background information and methods for interpretation and revealing the narrative substructure found within each of the Gospels and Letters This volume includes helpful illustrations charts notes and suggestions for further reading Sections are laid out in a well organized manner to help students navigate the content more easily Engaging the Doctrine of Jesus (and Mary) Matthew Levering,2025-03-10 The six chapters of this book focus upon Jesus conception and birth from a virgin his authoritative teaching his miracles his cross his resurrection and his ascension The purpose of the book is to articulate and defend the truth of these salvific mysteries as presented to us in Scripture In addition to conversing extensively with historical critical biblical scholarship the chapters make recourse to the theological tradition from the church fathers onward with Thomas Aquinas as a touchstone Levering seeks to make a case for believing in Jesus At the same time he shows how each of these mysteries is intimately linked with a truth about Mary the Mother of Jesus thus arguing for the integral relationship of Christology and Mariology Mary enacts the reception of the Lord by God s faithful people the New Adam never chooses to be without the New Eve in God s new covenant family The Christology offered in this book is therefore both attuned to historical studies of Jesus and Second Temple Judaism and at the same time deeply traditional in a contemporary Catholic and ecumenical way Christian Theology Millard J. Erickson,2013-08-15 Leading evangelical scholar Millard Erickson offers a new edition of his bestselling textbook now substantially updated and revised throughout This edition takes into account feedback from professors and students and reflects current theological conversations with added material on the atonement justification and divine foreknowledge Erickson s comprehensive introduction is biblical contemporary moderate and fair to various positions and it applies doctrine to Christian life and ministry Reason, Revelation, and the Civic Order Carson Holloway,2014-03-14 While the dominant approaches to the current study of political philosophy are various with some friendlier to religious belief than others almost all place constraints on the philosophic and political role of revelation Mainstream secular political theorists do not entirely disregard religion But to the extent that they pay attention their treatment of religious belief is seen more as a political or philosophic problem to be addressed rather than as a positive body of thought from which we might derive important insights about the nature of politics and the truth of the human condition In a one of a kind collection DeHart and Holloway bring together leading scholars from various fields including political science philosophy and theology to challenge the prevailing orthodoxy and to demonstrate the role that religion can and does play in political life Contributing authors include such important thinkers as Peter Augustine Lawler Robert C Koons J Budziszewski Francis J Beckwith and James Stoner The Cambridge Companion to Jesus Markus Bockmuehl,2001-11-08 This Companion takes as its starting point the realization that Jesus of Nazareth cannot be studied purely as a subject of ancient history a man like any other man History literature theology and the dynamic of a living worldwide religious reality all appropriately impinge on the study of Jesus The two parts of the book roughly correspond to the interdependent tasks of historical description and critical and theological reflection It incorporates the most up to date historical work on Jesus the Jew with the bigger issues of critical method the story of Christian faith and study and Jesus in a global church and in the encounter with Judaism and Islam Written by seventeen leading international scholars the book encourages students of the historical Jesus to discover the vital contribution of theology and students of doctrine to engage the Christ of faith as Jesus the first century Jew Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium, and the Renewal of the Church Duncan Dormor,Alana Harris,2017 Focuses exclusively on Evangelii Gaudium as interpreted from a variety of interdisciplinary and denominational perspectives with a sharper focus on the ecclesiological as well as the ecumenical potentialities for the reform and renewal of the church contained within this reorientation and reappreciation of the church's primary mission to evangelization in the modern world Leaning into the Spirit Virginia Miller, The Most Rev'd. Sir David Moxon, The Rt. Rev'd. Prof. Stephen Pickard, 2019-11-23 This book contains fresh insights into ecumenism and notwithstanding claims of an ecumenical winter affirms the view that we are actually moving into a new ecumenical spring It offers new theological insights in the areas of Christology Pneumatology and Trinitarian theology and discusses developments in ecumenism in the USA UK Australia India and Africa as well as in ecumenical institutions such as the World Council of Churches WCC and the Anglican Roman Catholic Commission ARCIC Early Christian Doctrine and the

The Nature Miracles of Jesus Graham H. Twelftree, 2017-09-06 The nature miracle stories of Jesus walking on the water or feeding thousands with a small amount of food for example are so spectacular that many find them a problem whether historical philosophical or even theological This is the first book to tackle this problem head on Do the stories reflect events in the life of the historical Jesus or are they myths or legends Or perhaps they grew out of parables or from more ordinary events into the incredible stories we now have Or again perhaps this the wrong approach A group of high ranking biblical historians philosophers and theologians with very diverse views set out to provide possible answers Contributors include James Crossley Eric Eve Craig S Keener Michael Levine Timothy J McGrew Scot McKnight Graham H Twelftree Ruben Zimmermann The End of the Timeless God R. T. Mullins, 2016-01-07 The claim that God is timeless has been the majority view throughout church history However it is not obvious that divine timelessness is compatible with fundamental Christian doctrines such as creation and incarnation Theologians have long been aware of the conflict between divine timelessness and Christian doctrine and various solutions to these conflicts have been developed In contemporary thought it is widely agreed that new theories on the nature of time can further help solve these conflicts Do these solutions actually solve the conflict Can the Christian God be timeless The End of the Timeless God sets forth a thorough investigation into the Christian understanding of God and the God world relationship It argues that the Christian God cannot be timeless

Lord Jesus Christ Daniel Treier, 2023-10-31 A study of the doctrine of Christ that is biblical and historical evangelical and ecumenical conceptually clear and contextually relevant Lord Jesus Christ expounds the doctrine of Christ by focusing upon theological interpretation of Scripture regarding Jesus s identity The book s structure traces a Christological arc from the eternal communion of the Triune God through creation covenants Incarnation passion and exaltation all the way to the consummation of redemptive history This arc identifies Jesus as the divine Lord who assumed human flesh for our salvation The book expounds and defends a classically Reformed Christology in relation to contemporary contexts and challenges engaging both philosophical and global concerns Each chapter begins with the theological interpretation of a key Scripture text before expounding key concepts of orthodox Protestant Christology Lord Jesus Christ is a unique example of writing dogmatic theology by way of theological exegesis The result is a volume that engages the numerous scholarly volumes on Christology that have appeared within the last couple of decades but provides a contemporary account of a traditional view About the Series New Studies in Dogmatics seeks to retrieve the riches of Christian doctrine for the sake of contemporary theological renewal Following in the tradition of G C Berkouwer s Studies in Dogmatics this series will provide thoughtful concise and readable treatments of major theological topics expressing the biblical creedal and confessional shape of Christian doctrine for a contemporary evangelical audience The editors and contributors share a common conviction that the way forward in constructive systematic theology lies in building upon the foundations laid in the church s historic understanding of the Word of God as professed in its creeds councils and confessions and by its most trusted teachers
