and seeks to capture the interplay between both retail policy and retail strategy and the theoretical implications of this on retail development as a whole This book will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students with an interest in retail development in emerging markets international business strategy and international marketing Green Mountain National Forest (N.F.), Sugarbush Ski Resort Project, Improvements and Development ,1998 Billboard ,1998-02-28 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Restructuring Industry and Territory Anna Giunta,Arnoud Lagendijk,Andy Pike,2016-02-04 Examining the current trends in regional economic development in Europe Restructuring Industry and Territory explores ways in which the restructuring of industry and territorial development relate to each other their emergent interdependency and role in economic development The book argues that the structural and cultural features of regions play an important part in helping or hindering concerted policies for regional development Using case studies from different industries in a variety of regions the contributors show that the pressures for restructuring such as internationalisation or even globalisation have been mediated by formerly nationally rooted industries in Europe becoming increasingly integrated due to the ongoing processes of technological and organisational innovation and political regulation Emergent Economies, Divergent Paths Robert C. Feenstra,Gary G. Hamilton,2006-03-27 The economies of South Korea and Taiwan in the second half of the twentieth century are to scholars of economic development what the economy of Britain in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries is to economic historians This book first published in 2006 is a collaboration between a leading trade economist and a leading economic sociologist specializing in East Asia and offers an explanation of the development paths of post World War II Korea and Taiwan The ambitions of the authors go beyond this however They use these cases to reshape the way economists sociologists and political scientists will think about economic organization in the future They offer nothing less than a theory of and extended evidence for how capitalist economies become organized One of the principal empirical findings is that a primary cause for the industrialization of East Asia is the retail revolution in the United States and the demand responsiveness of Asian manufacturers Price Changes in the Gasoline Market ,1999 Rural Conditions and Trends ,2000 Globalizing Regional Development in East Asia Henry Wai-chung Yeung,2013-09-13 Significant historical and geographical differences account for the many processes and trajectories of regional development in East Asia These historical and geographical specificities in East Asia have prompted serious re examination of existing theories in regional development and in particular the new regionalism approach associated with such ideas as the learning region institutional thickness relational assets and regional innovation system This book brings together a group of leading researchers specializing in local and regional development in East Asian economies Through in depth empirical studies of specific regions and localities these authors offer fresh and innovative perspectives on how regions evolve and develop over time in the world's most dynamic macro regional economy In particular their work points to the critical importance of local and trans local processes in shaping regional development trajectories The book is timely given that the debate on the nature and dynamics of regional development in both academic and policy circles has now moved on From the earlier focus on endogenous regional assets such as localized networks of association and trust scholars and policymakers are now analyzing the complex relationship between economic globalization and regional change This high calibre collection makes a significant contribution to the literature on local and regional development in Asia and provides an important resource for researchers students and policy makers interested in East Asia This book was published as a special issue of Regional Studies
