teaching strategies for expecting and facilitating confrontational dialogue toward developing education that is multicultural Specifically the book addresses the questions 1 What does it mean to become multicultural 2 What does it mean to be culturally sensitive 3 How can the process of multiculturalism be facilitated in a classroom setting 4 What is the teacher's role in the multicultural classroom 5 What are some expected predictable outcomes of a multicultural classroom Includes bibliography and index The Post-formal Reader Shirley R. Steinberg, Joe L. Kincheloe, Patricia H. Hinchey, 1999 This volume argues that while twentieth century educational psychology has made important advances a time for reassessment has arrived Recent years have seen the rise of neo Vygotskian analysis and situated cognition within the discipline of cognitive psychology The authors of Post Formal Reader have picked up where these theories leave off to more fully develop the specific connections between the social and the psychological dimensions of learning theory and educational psychology
