Conditions for English Language Teaching and Learning in Asia Bernard Spolsky, Kiwan Sung, 2015-01-12

In 1989 Bernard Spolsky published Conditions for Second Language Learning Oxford University Press At the 2012 Annual Conference of Asia TEFL a number of senior scholars were invited to comment upon the relevance of the book to the teaching of English in their region and to make suggestions on how it might be updated This volume contains revised versions of these talks and thus provides a survey of the conditions for teaching English in Asia Most contributors found the Conditions model useful but there has been a major change in emphasis in the past two decades

whereas the 1989 book emphasized linguistic and psycholinguistic conditions more recent work generally emphasizes the importance of sociolinguistic and language policy conditions for teaching English in Asia today Bilingual Community Education and Multilingualism Ofelia García, Zeena Zakharia, Bahar Otcu, 2012-09-15 This book takes up the lens of ethnolinguistic communities as they proudly educate their own children in their ways of speaking and being These bilingual community education programs are unlike bilingual programs in US public schools where speakers of languages other than English are often minoritized In these programs the children's linguistic and cultural diversity are their most valuable assets But these bilingual community education programs are also different from how others have characterized heritage language programs In these bilingual community education programs diasporic ethnolinguistic communities ensure that their children use their ways of speaking and being within a US global context Thus their interest is not in their heritage as the language and the culture was performed in the past in another space but as a dynamic bilingualism and biculturalism that is performed by American children publisher website

Crosslinguistic Encounters in Language Acquisition Elena Babatsouli, David Ingram, Nicole Müller, 2017-11-20 This book presents diverse original research studies on typical and atypical child language acquisition in monolingual bilingual and bi dialectal settings with a focus on development assessment and research methodology Languages investigated in the studies include underrepresented languages such as Farsi Greek Icelandic isiXhosa Maltese Mandarin and Slovene without excluding representative work in major languages like English and Spanish The language areas of focus are phonology lexicon morphology and syntax and the book incorporates studies in under researched language impairment such as Obstructive Sleep Apnea Syndrome and language impairment in 22q11.2 Deletion Syndrome The book has practical significance in that it proposes tools and assessment practices that are of universal crosslinguistic relevance while also dealing with language specific complications The studies presented enhance existing knowledge and stimulate answers on what the acquisition of disparate languages in different contexts can teach us about language communication development in the presence or absence of disorder
