Russian Way Aspects Of Behavior Attitudes And Customs Of The Russians:

The Russian Way Zita D. Dabars, Lilii Leonidovna Vokhmina, 1995 The Russian Way is a handy guide to understanding how people from every corner of Russia think do business and act in their daily lives Historical Dictionary of the Russian Federation Robert A. Saunders, 2019-09-20 Straddling Europe and Asia the Russian Federation is the largest country in the world and home to a panoply of religious and ethnic groups from the Muslim Tatars to the Buddhist Buryats Over the past 40 years Russia has experienced the most dramatic transformation of any modern state The second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Russian Federation provides insight into this rapidly developing country This volume includes coverage of pivotal movements events and persons in the late Soviet Union 1985 1991 and contemporary Russia 1991 present This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Russian Federation contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Russia Culture and Customs of the Central Asian Republics Rafis Abazov, 2006-12-30 The Central Asian Republics of Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Turkmenistan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan won their independence from the Soviet Union in 1991 Now they are emerging from the shadow of dominance and are subjects of intense interest from the West The modern culture and customs of the various peoples in these geopolitical hotspots straddling the far reaches of Europe into Asia are revealed to a general audience for the first time This will be the must have volume for a broad authoritative overview of these traditional civilizations as they cope with globalization A Comparative Study of Educational Leadership Characteristics and Attitudes of American and Russian Secondary School Administrators in Moultrie, Georgia, U.S.A. and Novokuznetsk, Kemerovo, Russia Richard McLendon, 2006-04-19 Since 1991 the Russian Federation has dealt with extreme political economic and social change On the national level and at the local level opponents of democratic reforms have retained their control of many important offices This has resulted in contradictions and confusion in regards to national and local laws and policies and has had little impact on local educational policies and practices Added to this general crisis of Russian education reform is the inability of so called Western education experts to comprehend the complexities and cultural differences of Russia and its education system when compared to the west There have been several studies of business management ideology since the breakup of the Soviet Union but American and Russian comparative educational leadership studies are not to be found Inquiry has produced no empirical studies in Russia and only two American empirical studies that have direct bearing on this research Also studies by the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization and the World Bank have looked at the total educational system with little or no specific study of educational administration The purpose of this descriptive study is to obtain an impression of how secondary school educators in the Russian Federation and the United States perceive their job responsibilities and organizational structure This research study is of interest in terms of realizing the similarities and dissimilarities of Russian and American educational leadership The survey instrument based on Hofstede's Values Survey Module 1994 was distributed among secondary school administrators and faculty at Colquitt County High School in Moultrie Georgia and their professional counterparts at Secondary Comprehensive School No 56 in Novokuznetsk Russia The collected data may help in understanding organizational dynamics in general and allow for the judgment of cultural contexts on Russian and American educational leadership This research study makes broad use of materials drawn from Russian and Western publications government documentations and other scholarly analyses
