Myrvold,2016-03-09 The Death of Sacred Texts draws attention to a much neglected topic in the study of sacred texts the religious and ritual attitudes towards texts which have become old and damaged and can no longer be used for reading practices or in religious worship This book approaches religious texts and scriptures by focusing on their physical properties and the dynamic interactions of devices and habits that lie beneath and within a given text In the last decades a growing body of research studies has directed attention to the multiple uses and ways people encounter written texts and how they make them alive even as social actors in different times and cultures Considering religious people seem to have all the motives for giving their sacred texts a respectful symbolic treatment scholars have paid surprisingly little attention to the ritual procedures of disposing and renovating old texts This book fills this gap providing empirical data and theoretical analyses of historical and contemporary religious attitudes towards and practices of text disposals within seven world religions Judaism Islam Christianity Hinduism Buddhism Jainism and Sikhism Exploring the cultural and historical variations of rituals for religious scriptures and texts such as burials cremations and immersion into rivers and the underlying beliefs within the religious traditions this book investigates how these religious practices and stances respond to modernization and globalization processes when new technologies have made it possible to mass produce and publish religious texts on the Internet Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn,2016-04-01

The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview

Caribbean literature drama and jazz women's writings emerging church blogs Neopagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Michelle Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focused snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies

Friedrich Max Müller and the Sacred Books of the East Arie L. Molendijk,2016-07-21 This volume offers a critical analysis of one the most ambitious editorial projects of late Victorian Britain the edition of the fifty substantial volumes of the Sacred Books of the East 1879-1910 The series was edited and conceptualized by Friedrich Max M 1823-1900 a world famous German born philologist, orientalist and religious scholar Müller and his influential Oxford colleagues secured financial support from the India Office of the British Empire and from Oxford University Press. Arie L. Molendijk documents how the series has become a landmark in the development of the humanities, especially the study of religion and language in the second half of the nineteenth century. The edition also contributed significantly to the Western perception of the religious or even mystic East which was textually represented in English translations. The series was a token of the rise of big science and textualized the East by selecting their sacred books and bringing them under the power of western scholarship.

History of the Sacred Scriptures of the New Testament Eduard Reuss, 1884 Politics of the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Moussa, 2015-10-05 Over the last two centuries the Muslim world has undergone dramatic transformations impacting the Islamic tradition and throwing into question our understanding of tradition. The notion of tradition as an unmoving edifice is contradicted by the very process of its transmission and the complex role human beings play in creating and sustaining traditions is evident in the indigenous mechanisms of change within the Islamic tradition. Politics of the Islamic Tradition locates the work of Egyptian cleric Muhammad al Ghazali within the context of this dynamic Islamic tradition with special focus on his political thought. Al Ghazali inherited a vast and diverse heritage which he managed to reinterpret in a changing world. An innovative exploration of the change and continuity present within Muslim discourses, this book brings together disparate threads of the Islamic tradition: religious exegesis, the contemporary Arab Middle East, the Islamic state and idea of renewal in al Ghazali's thought. As well as being one of the first complete treatments of al Ghazali's works, this book provides an original critical approach to tradition and its capability for innovation and change, countering the dichotomy between tradition and modernity that typically informs most scholarly studies on contemporary Islam. Offering highly original insights into Islamic thought and engaging with critical notions of tradition, this book is essential reading for students and scholars of Islamic Politics and History.

Sacred Texts Interpreted Carl Olson, 2017-10-05 Covering the major monotheistic religions: Christianity, Judaism and Islam as well as selected Eastern religions and Bahá'í, Zoroastrianism and Mormonism, this cross-cultural book offers excerpts of sacred texts and interprets passages to enable a deeper understanding of these religious writings. Sacred Texts Interpreted: Religious Documents Explained gives readers the opportunity to examine directly the primary sources of different religions and to better understand these texts through expert commentary on selected passages. The interpretative material investigates the nature of sacred texts along with the relationship between sacred scripture and canon and it explains why these sacred texts have enduring significance and influence. The author provides suggestions on how to read a sacred text before turning to the textual selections from 13 religious traditions arranged alphabetically, beginning with the Bahá'í religion and ending with Zoroastrianism. Each chapter is devoted to the primary textual sources of a particular religious tradition and is prefaced by an introduction to the literature that places it within its historical and cultural heritage. The emphasis for each religion is on its foundational scriptures that are often considered sacred by its adherents Readers will gain a much greater appreciation of how powerful religious texts have always been across human culture and throughout millennia and of how religious thought and ideology have shaped daily life built civilizations inspired art and literature and incited wars and violence     A Concise Encyclopedia of the Philosophy of Religion Anthony C. Burden, 2022-07-19 The Word Among Us Theologies of the Hebrew Bible Old Testament is a topical approach to the study of the Judeo Christian Bible Each topic is a survey of the many theological themes we encounter in the Biblical narrative such as the theology of Biblical History Torah Moses Election Covenant Land Kingship Prophecy and many more Special topics include The Theology of the Fall of Israel Theology of Messianic Expectations and The Theology of Israel Of particular interest is The Theology of Story which introduces the story oriented literary discipline At the center of Biblical theology is the tragic fall of the Northern Kingdom of Israel in 722 B C E and the Southern Kingdom of Judah in 586 B C E From these periods many of the theological motifs such as covenant law and prophecy arise to address and to explain these tragedies in Israelite history The primary purpose of the present study is a better understanding of the theological function of these motifs or themes A theological function is the power of a Biblical narrative to constitute and to restore the Israelite people who were struggling to survive the late period of Biblical history A special feature of my study are the several promptings from Biblical topics of the many discussions that relate to the New Testament and Christian teachings My approach to the study of the Hebrew Bible Old Testament is unique among other introductions to the Hebrew Bible This book therefore is very important to both the Jewish and the Christian reader Bees, Wasps, and Weasels Blaženka Scheuer, 2023-07-25 In this book Blaženka Scheuer explores the zoomorphic content of Zibburta bee wasp and Karku ta weasel demeaning names given by R Na man of b Meg 14b to Deborah and Huldah two distinguished prophets of the Hebrew Bible Looking closely at relevant texts she explores ancient beliefs about bees wasps and weasels recounting a variety of key literary and visual motifs that highlight the different attributes of these animals Scheuer demonstrates the multiple ways in which zoomorphic images were used as interpretative keys both in the formation of Deborah and Huldah stories in the Hebrew Bible and in their subsequent versions In a constant process of interaction with their cultural contexts such zoomorphism represents an attempt to define the rabbinic beliefs about the role of women in Jewish tradition but also about the nature of God Scheuer argues that the symbolic association of bees and weasels with asexual conception and birth also made the zoomorphic slurs about Deborah and Huldah effective as an argument against the doctrine of virgin birth in early Christianity Emphasizing the foundational process of constant negotiation of traditions and textual interpretations Scheuer exposes the culturally rich and religiously competitive world in which the biblical texts were transmitted An Ocean of Wonder ku'ualoha ho'omanawanui, Joyce Pualani Warren, Cristina Bacchilega, 2024-04-30 An Ocean of Wonder The Fantastic in the Pacific brings together fifty writers and artists from across Moananui kea working in myriad genres across media ranging from oral narratives and traditional wonder tales to creative writing as well as visual artwork and scholarly essays Collectively this anthology features the fantastic as present day Indigenous Pacific world building that looks to the past in creating alternative futures and in so doing reimagines relationships between peoples environments deities nonhuman relatives history dreams and storytelling Wonder is activated by curiosity humility in the face of mystery and engagement with possibilities We see wonder and the fantastic as general modes of expression that are not confined to realism As such the fantastic encompasses fantasy science fiction magic realism fabulation horror fairy tale utopia dystopia and speculative fiction We include Black feminist and queer futurisms Indigenous wonderworks Hawaiian mo'olelo kamaha'o and mo'olelo iwiwa S moan f gogo and
