Sacred Encounters Olive Sampath Mahabir, 2023 Sacred Encounters Jacqueline Peterson, Sacred Encounters Janet Colli, 2004 Sacred Encounters, 1993 Sacred Encounters with Jesus Gregory Scott Sparrow, 2003

Sacred Encounters with Jesus is a discerning account of how Jesus heals and transforms people today just as He ministered to His disciples. Readers will enter into the miraculous experiences of a terminally ill girl who was healed by Jesus' touch and of a woman who touched Jesus as He knelt beside her and prayed. These experiences raise the possibility that only some people will readily accept that Jesus can be experienced as directly and as personally today as when He walked the earth 2 000 years ago.

Redefining Spiritual Spaces in the Age of Technology Stacey K. Guenther, Xiaoan Li, Michelle A. Scheidt, 2025-08-30

Emerging technologies are entering every aspect of human life including the spiritual realm. At the same time, spirituality has entered mainstream environments including business, education, health and healing, and tech design. This provides an opportunity for technology and wisdom traditions to evolve together due to the widening audiences and worldviews. In this open access volume, an assembly of experts explores the intersection of spirituality and technology as they are emerging in a variety of contexts in our world. Through a mixture of philosophy, advocacy, presentation of research findings, and sharing of practices, this book illustrates technology's influence on spirituality and vice versa and its applications to management strategy and leadership. At the same time, contributing authors identify the surfacing pitfalls, shadow material, and areas that must be attended to during this time of evolving landscapes. Additionally, two of the chapters highlight virtual practices that focus on racial healing, which are of crucial import at this time in our collective history, and another two explore healing, justice, and liberation through the uses of technology. Written in a think piece style, this book is accessible to those within and outside of academia. This is an open access book.

Coming Home to Nez Perce Country Trevor James Bond, 2021-07-27

In 1847, two barrels of Indian curiosities shipped by missionary Henry Spalding to Dr. Dudley Allen arrived in Kinsman, Ohio. The items inside included exquisite Nez Perce shirts, dresses, baskets, and horse regalia, some decorated with porcupine quills and others with precious dentalium shells and rare elk teeth. Donated to Oberlin College in 1893 and transferred to the Ohio Historical Society (OHS) in 1942, the Spalding-Allen Collection languished in storage until Nez Perce National Historic Park curators rediscovered it in 1976. The OHS loaned most of the artifacts to the National Park Service, where they received conservation treatment and were displayed in climate-controlled cases. Josiah Pinkham, Nez Perce Cultural Specialist, notes that they embody the earliest and greatest centralization of ethnographic objects for the Nez Perce people. You don't have a collection of this size this age anywhere else in the world. Twelve years later, the OHS abruptly recalled the collection. Eventually, under public pressure, they agreed to sell the artifacts to the Nez Perce at their full appraised value of 608 100, allowing just six months for payment. The tribe mounted a brilliant grassroots fundraising campaign as well as a sponsorship drive for specific pieces. Schoolchildren, National Public Radio artists, and musicians contributed. Major donors came forward, and one day before the deadline, the Nez Perce Tribe met their goal. The author draws on interviews with Nez Perce experts and extensive archival research to tell the Spalding Allen Collection story He also examines the ethics of acquiring bartering owning and selling Native cultural history as Native American First Nation and Indigenous communities continue their efforts to restore their exploited cultural heritage from collectors and museums pieces that are living breathing intimately connected to their home region and inspirational for sustaining cultural traditions

The Landscapes of W. H. Auden's Interwar Poetry Ladislav Vít,2021-12-14 This is the first book length study foregrounding Auden s sense of place as a means for enhancing our grasp of this crucial twentieth century poet Proposing that Auden had a remarkable spatial sensibility this book concentrates on his treatment of his homeland England as well as the North Pennines and Iceland both of which served as his good places holy grounds and sources of topophilic sentiment The readings draw on the scholarship of humanistic geography tracing patterns of mental constructs which emerge from spatial experience In a scholarly but engaging way this book argues that focusing on Auden s poetics of place as it emerged and evolved can be instrumental to our understanding of this influential poet not only in relation to his epoch but also to the Anglophone poetic tradition Precisely because of his stature these elaborations on Auden s preoccupation with places escapism borders and local identity promise to enrich our understanding of the cultural and intellectual climate of the interwar period when established notions of local places and cultures were beginning to be contested by internationalisation This study will be of interest to both academics and students in the field of Anglophone literary studies while also appealing to those attracted to Auden s poetry interwar culture and the literary representation of space
