Song, 2012-08-30 According to Song the Christian faith is deeply rooted in storytelling stories are the most basic mode of human communication and in the same idea the Christian Bible is fundamentally a story Though Song regrets the fact that Christians and above all Christian theologians so often fail to express their faith in terms of stories Christian theology is most often expressed in terms of concepts ideas and systems Following the conviction that this is the most appropriate way to express our faith the proposal of this book is to speak of Christian faith and theology through stories rather than systems and texts Orthodox Christianity Carl S. Tyne, 2003 The Orthodox Church is one of the three major branches of Christianity There are over 300 million adherents throughout the world The Orthodox Church is a fellowship of independent churches which split from the Roman Church over the question of papal supremacy in 1054 The Orthodox adherents include people in Greece Georgia Russia and Serbia There are an estimated one million members in the United States This Advanced book explains the basic principles of Orthodox Christianity and describes in detail the holidays observed by the Orthodox Church In addition relevant book literature is presented in bibliographic form with easy access provided by title subject and author indexes

The Formative Power of Your Congregation Christina Jones Davis, Tim Shapiro, 2024-09-16 The formative power of a congregation serves as a primary catalyst for human development A congregation also forms a person's life Congregations are often well versed in matters of Christian formation and spiritual maturation But what about how human beings develop as people Insights from human development also known as developmental psychology provide an additional lens through which one can understand how humans are formed throughout life Working with 30 congregations the authors developed learning experiences presented here as case studies so that participants designed experiences that support human development at the intersection of congregational practices and various aspects of life parenting social justice vocation the arts and more Participating congregations extended beyond the volunteer based organization to be one of the primary places where people learned to be more human using the simple yet multi dimensioned phrase The Formative Power of Your Congregation is written for clergy and laity who long for a congregation that supports human flourishing as much or more than the growth or existence of the church We will introduce you to a framework of how congregations participate in the development of human beings Furthermore you will be introduced to particular congregations that applying the framework support participant growth in eight markers that support the flourishing of a person's life Moving churches from a loose volunteer association you will learn how your congregation can form people in lives of meaning and purpose

Heart to Heart Peter John McGregor, 2016-05-13 In Behold the Pierced One Joseph Ratzinger recounts how the composition of a 1981 paper on the Sacred Heart of Jesus had led him to consider Christology more from the aspect of its spiritual appropriation than he had done previously Upon realizing that this same year was the 1300th anniversary of the Third Council of Constantinople he decided to study the pronouncements of this Council and came to believe that the achievement of a spiritual Christology had also been the Council's ultimate goal Ratzinger's conclusion in attempting to define a spiritual Christology was that the whole of Christology our speaking of Christ is nothing other than the interpretation of his prayer the entire person of Jesus is contained in his prayer The spiritual Christology subsequently developed by Ratzinger is one of communion Indeed it is one of theosis Through a personal and ecclesial participation in the prayer of Jesus exercised in purity of heart and consummated in the eucharistic celebration one comes into communion with Jesus Christ and all the members of his Body so that eventually one can say truly It is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me Gal 2 20

The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background Encyclopædia of Religion and Ethics: Picts-Sacraments
