Sacred Quest The Evolution And Future Of The Human Soul:

Sacred Quest L. Robert Keck, 2000 Transformations promote our individual spiritual emergence but cause great distress Using his deep value research Robert Keck investigates the causal values that shape human culture determining why certain thought and behavior patterns become dominant He discovers that the human soul has evolved through three stages a childhood lasting from 35 000 to 10 000 years ago an adolescence from 10 000 years ago to the present and an emerging adulthood into which we are presently maturing Keck explains the sources of our unique confusion and examines the spiritually adolescent values that are dying so that adult ones can be born God is in Hell Gemma Grott, 2003 Enmeshed in revolutionary politics and faced with imminent death it took a series of extraordinary spiritual encounters to bring Grott to a dramatic change of life direction She did not realize she had been on a life long quest for the answer to Where was God during the Holocaust until she found her answers In her search for meaning and then healing and reconciliation she gives us a rare opportunity to witness the extremes of behavior a seeker may turn to before finding a way to end the cycle of assault and retribution This unusual story is told from an integrated heartfelt political and spiritual perspective The Objectification Spectrum John M. Rector, 2014-06-30 What lies at the heart of humanity's capacity for evil Any tenable answer to this age old question must include an explanation of our penchant for objectifying and dehumanizing our fellow human beings The Objectification Spectrum Understanding and Transcending Our Diminishment and Dehumanization of Others draws upon timeless wisdom to propose a new model of objectification Rather than offering a narrow definition of the term the author explores objectification as a spectrum of misapprehension running from its mildest form casual indifference to its most extreme manifestation dehumanization Using vivid examples to clearly demarcate three primary levels of objectification the author engages in a thoughtful exploration of various dispositional and situational factors contributing to this uniquely human phenomenon These include narcissism the ego death denial toxic situations and our perceived boundaries of self among others Rector then gives us reason to hope by orienting his model of objectification into a broader continuum of human capability one that includes a countervailing enlightenment spectrum Gleaning insights from classic philosophy the world's five most prominent religious traditions and current social science research he examines the best antidotes humankind has devised thus far to move us from casual concern for our fellow human beings toward interconnectedness and ultimately unity consciousness Broad in scope and deeply penetrating The Objectification Spectrum advances the conversation about the nature of human evil into personally relevant potentially transformative territory
