SACRIFICED LIVES

KRISTEVA ON WOMEN AND VIOLENCE

MARTHA J. REINEKE

"An important and exciting contribution to the field of feminist theory, social theory, and continental philosophy . . . that will interest not only students of Kristeva, but those who are interested in all forms of social violence, feminist theory, and women's issues as well." —Tamzin Lorraine, Swarthmore College

Why did medieval women mystics starve themselves? What caused the European witch hunts, and why were its victims tortured and killed? Why has the Christian West regularly found maternal figures threatening? To answer these questions, Martha Reineke advances a theory of sacrifice, inspired by Julia Kristeva and René Girard, that attempts to account for violence in Western culture, the human proclivity for bodily mutilation and abuse, and women's special vulnerability to violence.

Reineke understands sacrifice as an effort to counter unrest and disorder in society. She gives special attention to two especially perplexing questions: Why must victims die in order for the sacrificial gesture to be effective? What accounts for the ritual probing, mutilation, and slow death of the victim? With Kristeva, Reineke traces the logic of sacrifice to the infant's struggle to separate from the maternal body and acquire its own place in the world. During times of crisis, humans recall those long-forgotten efforts and ritually reinvoke them, often with lethal consequences. Reading the stories of mystics, witches, and mothers in light of this scenario, Reineke explains how the pattern of violence described here has placed women especially at risk — and why religion has played a pivotal role.

A challenging and controversial book, Sacrificed Lives constructs an important bridge between "esoteric," postmodern theory and "ordinary" human life, as it furthers a vital philosophical debate on the question of violence.

MARTHA J. REINEKE is Associate Professor of Religion and Director of the Graduate Program in Women's Studies at the University of Northern Iowa.
