The American image Graham Clarke,1993 The Body in the Reservoir Michael Ayers Trotti,2010-02-15 Centered on a series of dramatic murders in nineteenth and early twentieth century Richmond Virginia The Body in the Reservoir uses these gripping stories of crime to explore the evolution of sensationalism in southern culture In Richmond as across the nation the embrace of modernity was accompanied by the prodigious growth of mass culture and its accelerating interest in lurid stories of crime and bloodshed But while others have emphasized the importance of the penny press and yellow journalism on the shifting nature of the media and cultural responses to violence Michael Trotti reveals a more gradual and nuanced story of change In addition Richmond's racial makeup one third to one half of the population was African American allows Trotti to challenge assumptions about how black and white media reported the sensational the surprising discrepancies offer insight into just how differently these two communities experienced American justice An engaging look at the connections between culture and violence this book gets to the heart or perhaps the shadowy underbelly of the sensational as the South became modern

A Race for Real Sailors Keith McLaren, 2021-03-26 In the summer of 1920 the public following the latest America's Cup series were frustrated to find that every time the wind got up the organizers called off the race There was muttering in the taverns of Halifax and Lunenburg why not show these fancy yachtsmen what real sailors can do A Nova Scotia newspaper donated a trophy and put out a challenge to their rivals in New England inviting them to meet the Maritimes best in a race for real sailors A Race for Real Sailors is a vibrant history of the Fishermen's Cup series which dominated sporting headlines between the two world wars The salt spray practically blows off the page as the author's arresting style captures the drama of each race and the personalities of the ships that contested them the Delawana and the Esperanto the Columbia and the Gertrude L Thebaud and dominating them all the Bluenose the big brute from Lunenburg whose image shines on the Canadian dime to this day Vying for the spotlight are the boats larger than life skippers among them Marty Welch the hard charging American who first took the cup Ben Pine the Gloucester scrap dealer whose passion kept the races afloat when they seemed destined to fade away and the irascible impossible Angus Walters master of the Bluenose who repeatedly broke American hearts but whose own heart was broken by Canada's refusal to come to the rescue of his beloved vessel This stirring and poignant tale is illustrated with 51 historical photographs and five maps and rounded out by a glossary of sailing terms and an appendix of the ever changing race rules This is a story that will keep even confirmed landlubbers pegged to their seats a tale of iron men and wooden ships whose time will never come again
