edition Excerpt has been found in the sources the account is corrected in accordance with the sources or their account substituted The parallels so treated form but a small part perhaps one tenth of the whole edition all sayings which have no parallels are reprinted exactly as before except the duplicates which are taken out A large number of sayings in Lauterbach and Cordatus which have no parallels in Walch are printed in Appendices 1 The result is disappointing This is partly because the edition came out before the other sources were known partly from too great conservatism of treatment The bulk of the work is the same after all as that in Walch The material from Cordatus and Lauterbach is thrown in promiscuously in the old order which makes it less accessible and less valuable than in the original form The estimate of Cordatus by Wrampelmeyer is taken at its face value and most of his material which we know to be value 1 Hoppe op cit Einl in line less is inserted as an improvement on Aurifaber It is singular that the editor does not recognize what he must have known that there were other Hauptquellen and that if Aurifaber is worthless when we can find a parallel to him in Lauterbach he must have been so in other cases The editors of the Weimar edition¹ plan to dedicate one of their last volumes to the Table Talk basing it on a critical study of the sources This will certainly be the most satisfactory of all the editions indeed unless further sources are discovered which is not probable it should be definitive Let us see what may be hoped from such an edition a convenient way of summing up the results of our researches in the sources In the first place the original notes should be the only authority used
