A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red and then into the white background of the slide.

Lyrical Vision Of Mara Luisa Bombal:

The Lyrical Vision of María Luisa Bombal Celeste Kostopulos-Cooperman, 1988 This volume contains an examination of what are described as the most poetic examples of Chilean prose written in the 20th century By adopting Ralph Freedman's conceptual definition of lyrical narrative and using it as her point of departure Professor Kostopulos Cooperman argues that the protean and magical nature of Bombal's lyrical prose transcends the causal temporal and spatial movement that characterizes conventional fiction In her view Bombal's work is rather a narrative that arises in the poetic imagination of a narrator who creates a tapestry of expanding musical and pictorial patterns frequently reflecting the inner lives of her protagonists alienated heroines who withdraw into an illusory world of dreams fantasies and idealized realities where the conflict between self and other is rendered through a suggestive and contemplative network of subjective associations A Study Guide for Maria Luisa Bombal's "The Tree" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Maria Luisa Bombal's The Tree excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Third World Women's Literatures

Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries Passionate Subjects/split Subjects in Twentieth-century Literature in Chile Bernardita Llanos

M., 2009 Throughout the literary imaginaries of the twentieth century there is a reiteration of an authoritarian patriarchal pattern that permeates the social arena as well as the female subject revealing the contradictions of the Chilean modernity modernization process The nation appears invariably determined by semi feudal and semi modern structures as well as split female modern subjects Noticing this has led the author to write this book and investigate specifically the ways the discourse of modernity conflicts with the marriage contract in the construction of feminine subjectivity Marriage is one of the modern protocols that resolve sexual difference through a pact that proclaims male protection in exchange for female obedience Subordination of difference becomes the overarching feature guiding an incomplete modernity and its attainment in a hierarchical society Góngora's Poetic Textual Tradition Diane Chaffee-Sorace, 1988 Described as one of Spain's foremost Golden Age poets Luis de Gongora generated a vast and complex poetic textual tradition through the creation revision and dissemination of his verse In later life he authorized his friend Antonio Chacon to compile an anthology of his poetic works which had been in disarray for many years Gongora's assistance in identifying the genuine versions of his poems and his participation in the compiling editing and dating of these poems make the Chacon manuscript 1620 an authoritative collection of the poet's verse Nevertheless it includes defective poems and moreover the plethora of variants versions and imitations of his poetry raises questions of authorship and authenticity A Companion to Modern Spanish American Fiction Donald Leslie Shaw, 2002 With such figures as Jorge Luis Borges Miguel ngel Asturias and Gabriel Garc a M rquez both the latter Nobel Prizewinners Spanish American fiction is now unquestionably an integral part of the mainstream of Western literature This book draws on the most recent research in describing the origins and development of narrative in Spanish America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries tracing the pattern from Romanticism and Realism through Modernismo Naturalism and Regionalism to the Boom and beyond It shows how while seldom moving completely away from satire social criticism and protest Spanish American fiction has evolved through successive phases in which both the conceptions of the writer's task and presumptions about narrative and reality have undergone radical alterations DONALD SHAW holds the Brown Forman Chair of Spanish American literature in the University of Virginia Artists and Aesthetics in Spain Ann Livermore, 1988 Essays on Giorgione and Boethius The Consolation of Philosophy The Escorial and Philip II El Greco's Greek Phantasy and Toledo's Fantasia Francisco Zurbarán and the claritas of Bright Colours Velázquez and Francisco Snchez the precursor of Descartes Goya and Benito Feijoo the artist's liberation through the new sensibility Pablo Picasso and Rub n Daro the new world of rhythms Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater Richard Young, Odile Cisneros, 2010-12-18 The Historical Dictionary of Latin American Literature and Theater provides users with an accessible single volume reference tool covering Portuguese speaking Brazil and the 16 Spanish speaking countries of continental Latin America Argentina Bolivia Chile Colombia Costa Rica Ecuador El Salvador Guatemala Honduras Mexico Nicaragua Panama Paraguay Peru Uruguay and Venezuela Entries for authors ranging from the early colonial period to the present give succinct biographical data and an account of the author's literary production with particular attention to their most prominent works and where they belong in literary history The introduction provides a review of Latin American literature and theater as a whole while separate dictionary entries for each country offer insight into the history of national literatures Entries for literary terms movements and genres serve to complement these commentaries and an extensive bibliography points the way for further reading The comprehensive view and detailed information obtained from all these elements will make this book of use to the general interest reader Latin American studies students and the academic specialist
