crows cautiously hopping with outstretched beaks in the newly made furrow and taking wing when even the whip cracked or the horses wheeled round after which they would alight heavily in the wake of the plough and sharpen their beaks on the hard sun baked clods just turned up Valek just flick the right hand mare a bit she is lagging behind He smiled to see her draw evenly after this correction and when the horses came to the roadside jumped up to pat their necks a caress to which the animals responded by stretching their noses towards his face and sniffing complacently Het a ah Valek then sang out Pulling the silver bright share out of the furrow he deftly lifted up the plough swung the horses round and thrust the shining steel into the earth again At a crack of the whip the horses set tugging till the cross bar creaked again and on they went ploughing away at the great strip of land which stretching out at right angles to the road descended the slope and not unlike the woof of some coarse hempen stuff ran down as far as the low lying hamlet nestling amongst the red and yellow leaves of its orchards It was near the end of autumn but the weather was still warm and rather drowsy The sun was still hot enough and hanging in the south west above the woods made the shrubs and the pear trees and even the hard dry clods cast strong cold shadows Ineffable sweetness and serenity reigned in the air full of a golden haze of sunlit dust over the fields lately harvested while above in the azure heaven enormous white clouds floated here and there like great wind tormented snow drifts Below as far as the eye could see lay the drab hued fields forming a sort of huge basin with a dark blue rim of forest a basin across which like a silken skein glittering in the sunshine a river coursed sparkling and winding among the alders and willows on its banks In the midst of the hamlet it spread out into a large oblong body of water and then ran northward through a rift in the hills At the bottom of the valley skirting the lake lay the village with the sunlight playing on the many autumnal hues of its fruit gardens Thence even up to the very edge of the forest ran the long bands of cultivated ground stretches of grey fields with thread like pathways between them whereon pear trees and blackthorns grew the general ashen tint being in places variegated by patches of gold yellow lupines with fragrant flowers or by the dull silver of the dried up bed of some torrent or by quiet sandy roads with rows of tall poplars overshadowing them reaching upwards to the hills and woods The priest was suddenly roused from the contemplation of this scene A long mournful lowing was heard at no great distance making the crows take wing and fly away obliquely to the potato diggings their dark fluttering shadows following them over the partly sown fields Shading his eyes with his hand he gazed in the direction of the sun and the forest and beheld a little girl coming towards him and leading a large red cow by a rope As she approached she said Praised be Jesus Christ and would have gone out of her way to kiss the priest s hand but the cow jerked her away and fell a lowing anew
