My Husband My Child Our 14year Descent Into Dementia:

My Husband, My Child Eve S. Jensen, 2002 Every dementia patient is different so is every care giver If you happen to be anything like me and if your demented spouse is anything like My Great Dane this if I may be so bold would be my advice Go down that slippery slope with your spouse When he developed Alzheimer s or a similar dementia your life changed The more you try to hang on to normalcy to preserve yourself and your sanity the more likely you are to injure yourself Go willingly Go lovingly Even though your spouse may not be able to appreciate your companionship on the way down you will When well meaning people advised me to take time out to do those things I really enjoy I couldn t relate Single minded as I am I focused on Hal and it was in his company that I most enjoyed myself Perhaps that s why I survived And now as a tribute to Hal and to myself I intend to take laughter and joy with me on the trip back up the hill to recovery Thank you for sharing our experiences Read with understanding compassion and love New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement
