My Island Home A Torres Strait Memoir:

My Island Home John Singe, 2003 John Singe first arrived at Thursday Island in 1970 Peopled by many wild and wonderful characters this tropical paradise proved to be no place for the faint hearted As a diver John Singe survived shark attack and frequently faced the Strait s unpredictable moods when sailing the waters from Cape York to Papua New Guinea Hunting and fishing expeditions also provided him with an unexpected education As well as charting one man s Indiana Jones like adventures this entertaining book voyages across contemporary Islander cultures and lifestyles Much more than a travel saga My Island Home traces the rewarding journey of its author who continues to be drawn irresistibly to the gregarious people and unlimited horizons of Torres Strait

Steady Steady Henry 'Seaman' Dan, Karl Neuenfeldt, 2013 Born on Thursday Island in 1929 Seaman Dan didn t release his debut album Follow the Sun until his 70th birthday In the next ten years he released five albums showcasing traditional music from the Torres Strait as well as those revealing his love of jazz and blues Steady Steady The life and music of Seaman Dan is replete with Uncle Seaman s stories of his active and sometimes dangerous life in the islands in the heyday of pearl diving and other jobs and his later development as a professional singer musician The book includes many evocative and previously unknown images sourced from family and friends and will include a CD of tracks reflecting important periods in the life of this national treasure Listen to a sample of Seaman Dan s favourite songs

Embedding Culture into Video Games and Game Design Rhett Loban, 2023-09-04 This book will help game designers and those interested in games thoughtfully embed culture into video games and the game design process This book raises the issue of how some cultures and communities are misrepresented in various video games In response to this problem designers can bring cultural considerations and practices into the centre focus of the game design process The book advocates that designers put different measures in place to better prevent misrepresentations and engage with deeper understandings of culture to build culturally richer and more meaningful game worlds The book uses the Torres Strait Virtual Reality project as a primary example in addition to other game projects to explore cultural representation in game design Torres Strait culture is also explored and discussed more broadly throughout the book No prior knowledge of culture studies is needed and the book deals with higher level game design with little reference to the technical elements of game development This unique and timely book will appeal to those interested in the implications of cultural depictions in video games and opportunities to generate deeper cultural representations through the game design process

The Future of Indigenous Museums Nick Stanley, 2008 Indigenous museums and cultural centres have sprung up across the developing world and particularly in the Southwest Pacific This book looks to the future of museum practice through examining how these museums have evolved to incorporate the present and the future in the display of culture

Islands, Identity and the Literary Imagination Elizabeth McMahon, 2016-07-09 Australia is the planet's sole island continent This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature Further it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginary of European colonisation It prises apart the tangled web of geography fantasy desire and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands their real and material conditions and their symbolic resonance from antiquity into globalised modernity The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island's natural inhabitant or mirror Importantly the book challenges these habits of thought by their relocation within larger topological and imaginary visions from islanders themselves

Are We There Yet David Smiedt, 2004 In 2003 David Smiedt traveled to South Africa and found a very different country from the one he left in 1989 at the age of 19 This stirring memoir covers Smiedt's travels across a post Apartheid nation full of confusion and contradictions as he searches for his long lost father From Soweto to Cape Town from Kruger to Kimberley what Smiedt finds in this rapidly evolving country is shocking entrancing surreal and stunningly beautiful

The Flower Hunter Christine Morton-Evans, Michael Morton-Evans, 2009 Ellis Rowan was one of Australia's most accomplished artists and an incredible if somewhat unexpected adventurer During World War I Ellis ventured alone into the tropical jungles of New Guinea in search of all 72 known species of the Bird of Paradise Not only was she the first white woman to do such a thing she was also 70 years old The Flower Hunter is the incredible story of a woman who went to extraordinary lengths to paint her beloved subject matter journeying to some of the most wild and inhospitable areas of Australia and beyond On her death in 1922 there was hardly a household in Australia that didn't know her name Sadly today she is all but forgotten yet her work lives on in the 970 paintings carefully preserved in the National Library of Australia and in this the definitive story of Ellis Rowan's remarkable life

Law Society Journal, 2004
