My Khyber Marriage:

My Khyber Marriage Morag Murray Abdullah, 1934 My Khyber Marriage, Etc. [With Plates, Including Portraits.].
Morag Murray Abdullah, 1934 Encounters with Emotions Benno Gammerl, Philipp Nielsen, Margrit Pernau, 2019-06-06
Spanning Europe Asia and the Pacific Encounters with Emotions investigates experiences of face to face transcultural encounters from the seventeenth century to the present and the emotional dynamics that helped to shape them Each of the case studies collected here investigates fascinating historiographical questions that arise from the study of emotion from the strategies people have used to interpret and understand each other's emotions to the roles that emotions have played in obstructing communication across cultural divides Together they explore the cultural aspects of nature as well as the bodily dimensions of nurture and trace the historical trajectories that shape our understandings of current cultural boundaries and effects of globalization Empire's Son, Empire's Orphan Nile Green, 2024-07-02 A rollicking story of two literary fabulists who revealed the West's obsession with a fabricated exotic East In the highbrow literary circles of the mid twentieth century a father and son spread seductive accounts of a mystical Middle East Claiming to come from Afghanistan Iqbal and Idries Shah parlayed their assumed identities into careers full of drama and celebrity writing dozens of books that influenced the political and cultural elite Pitching themselves as the authentic voice of the Muslim world they penned picaresque travelogues and exotic potboilers alongside weighty tomes on Islam and politics Above all father and son told Western readers what they wanted to hear audacious yarns of eastern adventure and harmless Sufi mystics myths that as the century wore on and the Taliban seized power became increasingly detached from reality Empire's Son Empire's Orphan follows the Shahs from their origins in colonial India to literary London wartime Oxford and counterculture California via the Levant the League of Nations and Latin America Nile Green unravels the conspiracies and pseudonyms fantastical pasts and self aggrandizing anecdotes high stakes and bold schemes that for nearly a century painted the defining portrait of Afghanistan Iqbal and Idries convinced poets spies orientalists diplomats occultists hippies and even a prime minister that they held the key to understanding the Islamic world From George Orwell directing Muslim propaganda to Robert Graves translating a fake manuscript of Omar Khayyam and Doris Lessing supporting jihad Green tells the fascinating tale of how the book world was beguiled by the dream of an Afghan Shangri La that never existed Gambling with the currency of cultural authenticity Iqbal and Idries became master players of the great game of empire and its aftermath Part detective story part intellectual folly Empire's Son Empire's Orphan reveals the divergence between representation and reality between what we want to believe and the more complex truth Imperial Heartland David Holland, 2023-08-17 Working class Britons played a crucial role in the pioneering settlement and integration of South Asians in imperial Britain Using a host of new and neglected sources Imperial Heartland revises the history of early South Asian immigration to Britain focusing on the northern English city of Sheffield Rather than viewing immigration through the lens of inevitable conflict this study takes an alternative approach situating mixed marriages and inter racial social networks centrally within the South Asian settlement of modern Britain Whilst acknowledging the episodic racial conflict of the early inter war period David Holland challenges assumptions that insurmountable barriers of race religion and culture existed between the British working classes and non white newcomers Imperial Heartland closely examines the reactions of working class natives to these young South Asian men and overturns our pre conceptions that hostility to perceived racial or national difference was an overriding pre occupation of working class people during this period Imperial Heartland therefore offers a fresh and inspiring new perspective on the social and cultural history of modern Britain

An American Bride in Kabul Phyllis Chesler, 2025-10-16 Few westerners will ever be able to understand Muslim or Afghan society unless they are part of a Muslim family Twenty years old and in love Phyllis Chesler a Jewish American girl from Brooklyn embarked on an adventure that has lasted for more than a half century In 1961 when she arrived in Kabul with her Afghan bridegroom authorities took away her American passport Chesler was now the property of her husband s family and had no rights of citizenship Back in Afghanistan her husband a wealthy westernized foreign college student with dreams of reforming his country reverted to traditional and tribal customs Chesler found herself unexpectedly trapped in a posh polygamous family with no chance of escape She fought against her seclusion and lack of freedom her Afghan family s attempts to convert her from Judaism to Islam and her husband s wish to permanently tie her to the country through childbirth Drawing upon her personal diaries Chesler recounts her ordeal the nature of gender apartheid and her longing to explore this beautiful ancient and exotic country and culture Chesler nearly died there but she managed to get out returned to her studies in America and became an author and an ardent activist for women s rights throughout the world An American Bride in Kabul is the story of how a na ve American girl learned to see the world through eastern as well as western eyes and came to appreciate Enlightenment values This dramatic tale re creates a time gone by a place that is no more and shares the way in which Chesler turned adversity into a passion for world wide social educational and political reform

Literary License and the West's Romance with Afghanistan Zubeda Jalalzai, 2023-11-13 Literary License and the West's Romance with Afghanistan analyzes the role literature and poetic sensibility played in colonial British and American writings on Afghanistan from the nineteenth through the twenty first centuries It also considers the role that literature and literariness itself have played in western discourses framing Afghanistan The British Romantic Orientalists of the 19th century studied the region in depth and were drawn to what they perceived as an alien space where they could remake themselves in print and in life These writers and those who followed including scholars civil servants and wives or professional women were inspired by the region and sometimes crossed ethnic national and imaginative boundaries This book explores the connections that were forged in print through fantastic and familiar assumptions regarding the region and its people

Children of Afghanistan Jennifer Heath, Ashraf Zahedi, 2014-11-15 The first comprehensive look at youth in a country attempting to rebuild itself after three decades of civil

conflict Children of Afghanistan relies on the research and fieldwork of twenty one experts to cover an incredible range of topics Focusing on the full scope of childhood from birth through young adulthood this edited volume examines a myriad of issues Children of Afghanistan is the first volume that not only attempts to analyze the range of challenges facing Afghan children across class gender and region but also offers solutions to the problems they face With nearly half of the population under the age of fifteen the future of the country no double lies with its children Those who seek peace for the region must find solutions to the host of crises that have led the United Nations to call Afghanistan the worst place on earth to be born The authors of Children of Afghanistan provide child centered solutions to rebuilding the country s cultural social and economic institutions Back cover The Storyteller's Daughter Saira Shah,2007-12-18 Imagine that a jewel like garden overlooking Kabul is your ancestral home Imagine a kitchen made fragrant with saffron strands and cardamom pods simmering in an authentic pilau Now remember that you were born in London your family in exile and that you have never seen Afghanistan in peacetime These are but the starting points of Saira Shah s memoir by turns inevitably exotic and unavoidably heartbreaking in which she explores her family s history in and out of Afghanistan As an accomplished journalist and documentarian her film Beneath the Veil unflinchingly depicted for CNN viewers the humiliations forced on women under Taliban rule Shah returned to her family s homeland cloaked in the burqa to witness the pungent and shocking realities of Afghan life As the daughter of the Sufi fabulist Idries Shah primed by a lifetime of listening to her father s stories she eagerly sought out from the mouths of Afghan refugees in Pakistan the rich and living myths that still sustain this battered culture of warriors And she discovered that in Afghanistan all the storytellers have been men until now Learning and Writing in Counselling Mhairi MacMillan, Dot Clark, 1998-02-28 This is a very practical how to book written for students on counselling skills courses It is intended to help them through the various problems faced by people returning to education perhaps after a long gap how useful this book could be to students who are confused by the increasingly academic requirements of counselling training courses I would recommend this book as a companion for anyone who is starting a course with little or no experience of academic expectations It is written in a friendly and reassuring style Counselling The Journal of the British Association for Counselling This book provides a comprehensive overview of the tasks and the processes of learning and writing required
