My Life As A Fake:

My Life as a Fake Peter Carey, 2010-08-06 Following the triumph of his Booker Prize winning True History of the Kelly Gang Peter Carey ventures into the Far East with a novel shot through with mysteries at once historical literary and personal Sarah Wode Douglass the editor of a London poetry magazine had grown up knowing the famous and infamous John Slater And because he figured prominently in the disaster that was her parents marriage when Slater proposes that she accompany him to Malaysia Sarah embarks out of curiosity on a journey that becomes instead a lifelong obsession Her discoveries spiral outward from Christopher Chubb a destitute Australian she meets by chance in the steamy fetid city of Kuala Lumpur He is mad Slater warns her explaining the ruinous hoax Chubb had committed decades earlier But lurking behind the man s peculiarity and arrogance Sarah senses is artistic genius in the form of a manuscript he teases her with and which she soon would do anything to acquire The provenance of this work she gradually learns is marked by kidnapping exile and death a relentless saga that reaches from Melbourne to Bali Sumatra and Java and that more than once compels her back to Malaysia without ever disclosing all of its secrets only the power of the imagination and the price it can exact from those who would wield it Astonishing mesmerizing and ultimately shocking My Life as a Fake is the most audacious novel yet in Peter Carey s extraordinary career

My Life as a Fake Peter Carey, 2010-12-09 Melbourne the late 1940s A young conservative Australian poet named Christopher Chubb decides to teach his country a lesson about pretension and authenticity Choosing as his target the most avant garde of the literary magazines he submits for publication the entire oeuvre of one Bob McCorkle a working class poet of raw power and sexual frankness conveniently dead at twenty four and entirely the product of Chubb s imagination Not only does the magazine fall for the hoax but the local authorities also sue its editor for publishing obscenity At the trial someone uncannily resembling the faked photograph of the invented McCorkle leaps to his feet At this moment a horrified Chubb is confronted by the malevolent being he has himself manufactured

Who's Who? Rewriting/Reprising Georges Letissier, 2009-10-02 This volume comprises sixteen essays preceded by an introductory chapter focusing on the diverse modalities of textual and more widely artistic transfer Whereas the first Rewriting Reprising volume coord by C Maisonnat J Paccaud Huguet its subversive potential is perceptible notably through its many attempts at emancipating the genre from the ideological fetters of gender Over the past two decades Victorian literature and culture has become an inescapable field of investigations to any study on intertextuality in the English speaking world In a second part diversity has been preferred to any single specific angle to approach the Victorian neo Victorian tropism The purpose is to provide as complete a spectrum as is reasonably possible in such a volume The practice of rewriting in the Victorian age is thus studied alongside contemporary appropriations of the Victorian canon The question is raised of whether literary fetishism may not result in a form of counterfeit classicism while the more challenging neo Victorian rewritings would make a claim for the need to choose one's literary heritage and ancestors This is where the post colonial agenda comes in Precisely the third part investigates the question of rewriting reprising as a way of writing back The myth of Frankenstein's creature bent on wreaking vengeance on his creator is of course seminal as it offers a myth of transgression which in its turn becomes a foundation myth Not only are post colonial responses to their disclaimed parent texts highly theory informed but they also evince an awareness of such contemporary issues which are direct consequences of the colonial past In the last section of this volume the scope of what comes within the range of intertextuality per se is widened to cover artistic dialogism In the exchanges between theatrical texts reprise may be construed as a metaphor standing for the pleasure inherent in the process of recreation The interaction between embedded paintings and the embedding canvas offers yet another variation on the reprise motif as does the meta aesthetic discourse of the critic on the work of art What begins as mere repetition is soon colored by the personal inflections of the interpreter In operatic performances updating a classical text to make it suitable to contemporary audiences and in close harmony with the role assigned to music is liable to spur on the creativity of recreation
