

My Morocco

John C. Thibdeau

My Morocco:

Morocco and earthquakes seen through my glasses Poul Otto Jorgensen, 2024-10-15 I spend a lot of time in Morocco where I am married to the Berber woman Jamila. We live in a mountain area in the village of Hay Assersif which is near a larger town called Aourir located approximately 20 km from Agadir. When I am in Morocco I often talk to the people about Morocco and the different areas each with their own distinctive character. When I drink my tea with nana mint I get to know many things ranging from geography, population, composition, occupations, government systems and family relationships and much more. Regarding family relationships you have to be careful because in the Berber area where I am I have learned that many people are related to each other. Well, I know your wife well because my mother is her cousin. I was told once and it was not the last time. Sometimes when we go to Aourir and my wife greets someone I might already know. I say, 'Where do you know her from?' Well, that's my aunt, says Jamila. The family is like brothers and sisters; they can say bad things about each other but if I interfere I get the hot pot. Although all those I have talked to and talk to about Morocco probably do not think how much and great information they have given me, I would like to thank them very much because without their help it would not have been possible to write this book. I would especially like to thank my little Berber wife Jamila. Subsequent thanks must go to my friends mentioned in no particular order: Soufiane Hassan, my brother-in-law, Mohamed Ahmed and Aaziz. I have purposely not mentioned their last names as I know they won't care. Furthermore, my late brother Henning Jorgensen's reports have been an invaluable help. He often told about the Morocco he traveled sparsely when he worked in Morocco where he also had many acquaintances from high to low.

Last Chapter Leila Abouzeid, 2003-02-01 This thought-provoking semi-autobiographical book tells the story of Aisha, a young Moroccan woman and her struggle to find an identity in the Morocco of the second half of the twentieth century. Charting Aisha's path through adolescence and young adulthood up to the present, her story is told through a series of flashbacks, anecdotes and glimpses of the past, all bound up with a strong, often strident, always compelling worldview that takes in Morocco, its politics, people and traditions, Islam and marriage. Male-female relationships feature strongly in the narrative and by exposing us to Aisha's troubled romantic encounters, Abouzeid uncovers the shifting male-female roles within the Morocco of her lifetime. Many aspects of Moroccan society are also explored through the other clashes of the modern and the traditional in Aisha's life: The workplace and corruption, the struggle for women's rights, the clash between Islamic and Western values as well as with the older practices of sorcery and witchcraft and the conflict between colonial and native language use are all intertwined in a narrative that is both forceful and often poetic. Through a series of tales of emotional disasters, the reader becomes aware not only of Aisha's frustrations but also of her deep commitment to her country and her struggle to defeat suffering, uphold justice and retain a fierce independence as a woman and a clarity of conviction in her life. Leila Abouzeid is a pioneer among her Moroccan contemporaries in that she writes in Arabic rather than in French and is the first Moroccan woman writer of literature to be translated into English This stimulating and revealing book adds a new perspective to Maghrebi women s writing and is an important addition to the growing body of Arab women s writing in translation My Study Windows James Russell
