The Progressive Darkness Carl Binger LMHC,2021-03-03 Like almost everyone Carl Binger has had moments where he wondered why he is in such a funk He is one of many who have suffered from depression When it has hit he has struggled with fighting disinterest in possessions hobbies and even Jesus Binger gives readers a raw and real look at depression through personal testimony and psalm in this memoir that includes wonderful illustrations and poems As you read you will learn how to let go and overcome feelings of guilt develop a meaningful relationship with the Lord eliminate behaviors that are holding you back overcome feelings of helplessness Throughout the book Binger shares a candid account of his struggles in college and how he was almost arrested on one occasion He also shares how becoming a believer delivered him from the need to smoke marijuana The book was written for the express purpose of letting those who suffer from depression know that they are not alone and they can turn their heart and eyes to Jesus Christ for help Well, That's Just Nonsense Carl

Hauser,2025-07-25 Even before we retired to the Sacramento Mountains Jo Ann and I had always planned to volunteer in ways to help seniors It started by delivering meals to the homebound Then I was asked to write articles to promote the senior center in the monthly paper I also wanted to do it with humor so much of my work is how I dealt with various events in my life In a series of essays written over twelve years I poked fun at myself my wife Jo Ann a number of the characters we delivered to and our dear friends The stories represent over fifty years of successes and failures The Christian journey is not always easy And my shortcomings are painfully obvious Cut Out Jeremy Seabrook,2016-06-20 Britain s welfare state one of the greatest achievements of our post war reconstruction was regarded as the cornerstone of modern society Today that cornerstone is wilfully being dismantled by a succession of governments with horrifying consequences The establishment paints pictures of so called benefit scroungers the disabled the sickly and the old In Cut Out Living Without Welfare Jeremy Seabrook speaks to people whose support from the state for whatever reason is now being withdrawn rendering their lives unsustainable In turns disturbing eye opening and ultimately humanistic these accounts reveal the reality behind the headlines and the true nature of British politics today Published in partnership with the Left Book Club White Beech

Germaine Greer,2014-01-01 For years I had wandered Australia with an aching heart Everywhere I had ever travelled across the vast expanse of the fabulous country where I was born I had seen devastation denuded hills eroded slopes weeds from all over the world feral animals open cut mines as big as cities salt rivers salt earth abandoned townships whole beaches made of beer cans One bright day in December 2001 sixty two year old Germaine Greer found herself confronted by an irresistible challenge in the shape of sixty hectares of dairy farm one of many in south east Queensland that after a century of logging clearing and downright devastation had been abandoned to their fate She didn t think for a minute that by restoring the land she was saving the world She was in search of heart s ease Beyond the acres of exotic pasture grass and soft weed and the impenetrable curtains of tangled Lantana canes there were Macadamias dangling their strings of unripe nuts and Black

Beans with red and yellow pea flowers growing on their branches and the few remaining White Beeches stupendous trees up to forty metres in height logged out within forty years of the arrival of the first white settlers To have turned down even a faint chance of bringing them back to their old haunts would have been to succumb to despair Once the process of rehabilitation had begun the chance proved to be a dead certainty When the first replanting shot up to make a forest and rare caterpillars turned up to feed on the leaves of the new young trees she knew beyond doubt that at least here biodepletion could be reversed Greer describes herself as an old dog who succeeded in learning a load of new tricks inspired and rejuvenated by her passionate love of Australia and of Earth most exuberant of small planets Stompbox Eilon
