My Painting Life:

My Painting Life David Shepherd, 1995-07 Few artists possess David Shepherd's combination of talent and truly popular appeal. He modestly suggests that his success is a result of good fortune and being in the right place at the right time, but for those who know his work, it is obvious that its attraction stems from the wholehearted enthusiasm with which he embraces his subjects. His paintings are suffused with the life, emotion, and colour which reflect David's own personality. Combining over 60 of his very best paintings with a lively autobiographical text, the book takes a fresh look at the fascinating life of this irrepressible artist. From his first influences and training with Robin Goodwin through early struggles and successes and on to the leaps and bounds of his subsequent career, David tells his tale with honesty and sincerity. He pays tribute to the people and animals who have helped him along the way and expresses his total commitment to the cause of wildlife conservation as well as his lifelong love of what he calls big toys: steam trains, aeroplanes, and ships. This outstanding collection of paintings reflects every facet of David Shepherd's personality and experience. Living the Artist's Life Yvonne Martinez Ward, Ph.D., 2010-11-13 Living the Artist's Life is an introspective book about how one becomes an artist and taps into that interior creative spirit. Alfredo Roces David Jonathan Bayot, 2023-06-13

Alfredo Roces Digital Paintings features the digital art creation of a polymathic Filipino artist. Though formally trained in the traditional school of fine arts where in the mid-fifties the artist took up drawing classes with German Expressionist and Dadaist George Grosz at the Art Students League of New York, Roces welcomed with gusto the offer of new technologies for his artmaking. The artist's encounter with Photoshop in 2004 would eventually set the stage for his ongoing adventures with digital artmaking when in 2011, nearing eighty years of age, he discovered the Big Apple and found his Eden with Brushes and later on Procreate in iPad. The book presents a selection of more than a hundred of Roces's iPad drawings in various genres: portrait, still life, human figure, and abstract, and shows to full effect the artist's zest for life. The book is prologued with an interview with the editor David Jonathan Bayot in which Roces tells of a life so far and speaks of his dreams for the tomorrows ahead. A prefatory interview is complemented by the artist's own account of his adventures with digital art. In the words of Tina Colayco, President of the Metropolitan Museum of Manila: "There is much to be admired with Alfredo Roces who at 90 remains an authentic and authoritative persona in Philippine art and culture. The book captures the essence of Roces as a Filipino artist, the zeitgeist of so many decades, and a continuing passion to create art. It brings to the fore the journey of the gentleman artist described in the epigraph to the book as sitting in the Row of a morning."
