My Food:

My Food, Your Food Lisa Bullard, 2015-04-01 It's food week in Manuel's class. Each student shares his or her family's food traditions. Some eat noodles with chopsticks. Others use a fork. Some families eat flat bread. Others eat puffy bread. What foods will Manuel talk about? My Food, Your Food, Our Food Emma Carlson Berne, 2018-08 We all like different food but everybody needs to eat. How Are We Alike and Different? Find out in My food Your food Our food Back cover Food and God Joel R. Soza, 2009-05-13 The central thesis of this book is that Western culture and American culture in particular needs an immediate change with regard to food and eating. Western over indulgence is exacerbated by hunger and deprivation in the world. Learning to think theologically and not just medically or psychologically about one's eating habits will lead to positive personal and communal changes. In Food and God Joel Soza offers readers a deeper understanding of Christian faith, one that will help them learn to think of eating as not merely a physical act but as a spiritual exercise. Readers will become more aware of world need and preference for others while also learning how to improve their own health, control their own weight, and develop greater spiritual awareness and sensitivity in the daily and routine activity of eating. This book evaluates both Old and New Testaments as well as some theology in the history of the Church to arrive at an understanding of how one should think about food and eating in relationship to God and the world. The reader will learn of the key role food plays in the biblical creation and temptation narratives. They will learn of the enormous labor that went into food preparation in the ancient world and what sages have had to say about food indulgence throughout time and many cultures. Finally, readers will encounter Jesus's invitation to think about food in spiritual ways, gaining an understanding as to what it means that Christianity is a movement with table fellowship at the forefront of its faith expression. Unhooked Laura Dawn, 2015-01-06 We know that the primary reason we eat is because our body needs fuel to survive, yet our relationship with food extends far beyond that. It's not just about what we should or shouldn't be eating. It incorporates aspects of our physiology, emotions, behaviors, and thought patterns, and how we feel about our lives, all rooted in a culture that supports and fosters an unhealthy, disordered relationship with food. Despite our repeated efforts, many of us find ourselves falling back into the same habitual patterns around food habits that keep us overweight and unhappy. Laura Dawn sheds light on how we get hooked on the food struggle from six primary perspectives: environmental, physiological, behavioral, mental, emotional, and spiritual, and provides concrete steps you can take to unhook yourself from the struggle with food. Unhooked cuts through the over-complex and contradictory dieting information flooding the market and provides a clear blueprint for people to step onto the path of vibrant health and freedom from the struggle. Unhooked approaches the pertinent topic of overeating from a multi-dimensional, holistic, and mindfulness-based approach that encompasses the broader perspective of healing our relationship with food from the inside out. Drawing on a range of easy-to-understand information, Laura Dawn consistently points to nature, to science, to the wisdom traditions, and personal experience for the answers so many seek. Unhooked offers a unique framework of solutions practical tips a wealth of wisdom and easy to implement advice for anyone struggling with food whether it be chronic overeating incessant cravings food addiction yo yo dieting disordered eating the inability to eat certain foods in moderation obsession with weight and preoccupation with food that so many millions of people experience each and every day Unhooked empowers readers to shift their perspective from food as enemy to food as friend fueling the transformation to vibrant health and reminds us that we are all worthy to live the healthy lives of our dreams
